

WHO'S WHO and doing what

BELLS ARE RINGING . . .

Well, it's that time of year again and those bells you are hearing are Wedding Bells. Betty Jo Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Jones became the bride of Donald Anderson last Thursday evening at seven o'clock in The Chapel of the Flowers.

Both the bride and groom are Las Vegas residents; the petite bride, a '65 Debutante, was radiant in white peau-de-soir full-skirted gown with lace jacket and long lace sleeves. Her illusion veil of three tiers was waist length and held by a cluster of pearls--the bridal bouquet was made of white and blue carnations.

The Maid of Honor, Deborah Roberts, was charming in a pink peau-de-soir sheath with matching bow for a headpiece and carrying white carnations. Jimette Jones was her sister's flower girl and wore a blue nylon dress--her flowers were also in blue and white.

Sam Armstrong served as best man for his friend, Donald Anderson who is in the Navy and currently stationed at Treasure Island in San Francisco. Donald, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Denolia Anderson of Las Vegas attended Metropolitan College in Los Angeles and Nevada Southern University majoring in Business Administration. The bride will graduate from Western High School next month.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held at the Jones residence on Lance Street where Mrs. Jones, in beige knit with white accessories and the groom's mother, in blue and white peau-de-soir, graciously received the wedding guests. Assisting Mrs. Jones in her hostess duties were Mrs. James Milinder, Mrs. Saddle Little, and Mrs. Ollie Griffin--Champagne, Punch, and assorted hors d'oeuvres were served far into the night.

ANOTHER BEAUTIFUL BRIDE . . .

Newsman-Disc Jockey, Phil Waddell claimed Marva Ann Manning as his bride in formal 4 p.m. ceremony Sunday at the Second Baptist Church with the Rev. Prentiss Walker officiating and Mrs. Horace Goulston at the piano.

Marva Ann, wearing a floor length white sheath, carried white carnations and her Maid of Honor, Mary Jo White of Los Angeles wore a pale blue and white sheath and also carried white carnations. Acting as Junior bridesmaid was Senon Moody, and her little sister, Tracy, was an adorable flower girl. Standing with Phil, as Best Man, was Ike Rome.

A reception in the Surf Room of the Cove Hotel followed the Ceremony with Mrs. Ike Rome playing hostess to the fifty guests congratulating the happy bride and groom while sipping champagne and enjoying a truly monumental (and beautiful) wedding cake.

Among Phil and Marva Ann's guests whom we had a word or two with were Eileen Brookman, Whitey Robbins, H. P. Fitzgerald, Bobby Johnson, Chic Hecht, Mr. and Mrs. David Hoggard, Willie Longshore, and Henry Wells.

THE WELCOME MAT . . .

The Red Carpet was out in all its splendor when the Elks and the Daughters hosted Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Liston Friday night in a "Welcome to The Best City of Them All" at a Champagne Sip. The Liston's recently moved to Las Vegas and are making their home in the exclusive Paradise Valley area.

The House Committee responsible for the sparkling event were Mrs. Ronald (Linda) Ward, Chairman; Sgt. Ollie Jones, Co-Chairman; Exalted Ruler, Willie Neal, Munro Phillips, Joe Lee Robinson and Jimmie Love.

Among the guests who turned out to say "Howdy" and "Glad to have you here" to the Listons were Dr. and Mrs. John Crear, Dr. and

VISITORS IN TOWN . . .

Mr. and Mrs. William Seamon of Los Angeles, parents of our Dottie West, and Mrs. Gertrude Harbert, also of Los Angeles, mother of our Carita Harbert, have been enjoying the company of their adored ones and the sights of our town for the past week. . . AND THE VOICE'S Home-making Editor, Dorothy Johnson was beaming all over because her son-in-law Henry Nelson and his friend Warner Sledge (both of Los Angeles) came up and spent three days with her and hubby, Ray, for Mother's Day. Dorothy's daughter, Dorothy Ann didn't make the trip because they have a house up for sale, and Henry reminded Dorothy Ann that she always claims to have the better business head, so it was to their advantage for her to stay home and conduct the Open House while he paid filial respects to her mother. The two "sharp" young men had a Ball while here. . . They were so sharp that, while shopping for shirts in the Men's Shop at the Sands, customers kept coming to them to inquire if they were with the Sammy Davis show.
