

WHO'S WHO and doing what

By EDDYE K. KIM

Anna and Bob Bailey's Sugar Hill Gardens at Miller and Lexington was the scene of much festive activity, Wednesday night, when the Bailey's hosted the Checkmates and pretty Freda Payne, well-known singer and recording artist.

Looking like an Annie Oakley doll in her western attire ('twas Helldorado time, remember), Mrs. Charles West made use of the occasion to entertain her house guests parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Seamon and Mrs. Eugene Owens, all of Los Angeles. Mrs. Owen's husband formerly lived in Las Vegas, and worked at that most popular rendezvous of them all the old Key Club--you probably remember Eugene by his nickname "Cactus Slim".

Also making merry in the Gardens were Floyd Plymouth, Attorney Earle White, Marjorie Elliott, Sarah Ann Knight, Sondra Reid (as vivacious as always) and Henry Miller who played the role of official photographer for the event.

Bobby Johnson was the head chef for the tasty Bar-B-Que that was served to the numerous guests including Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Denton, John West, Al Wilburn and so many more.

SWEET SMELL OF CHARITY...

Nowhere are the ladies more skilled at putting together a Benefit than here in Las Vegas. This was indicated again by the fund-raising Dinner the Auxiliary for the Home of the Good Shepherd sponsored Saturday night in the Grand Ball Room of the Sands Hotel. Highlight of the Program, after a delicious repast, was the unveiling of a portrait of 80-year-old Mother Superior Mary Delores.

We shook hands with such dignitaries as Senator Howard Cannon, Lt. Gov. Paul Laxalt, Commissioner Ed Fountain, and Judge John Mowbray.

Listed among the contributors to this home for girls of all races and creeds is Gamma Phi Delta Sorority. Soror sisters present at the Dinner and enjoying themselves immensely were the local Chapter's founding President, Mrs. Till (Thelma) Toms, Mrs. Woodrow (Nora) Wilson, neophyte Lucille Gee, Helen Carruthers, and yours truly.

THE ONLY WAY TO GO...

Charming Mrs. Lillian Osborne will join her brother in Brooklyn, New York and together they will sail to Bermuda, their native home. Preceding them to the Islands is their mother, Mrs. Mirian Osborne who has been visiting her daughter here in Las Vegas. Luckiest and happiest youngster in town is Grant Johnson, Mrs. Osborne's grandson who will make the trip also... There is nothing, but absolutely nothing to match a Caribbean Cruise.

Motoring to Los Angeles for a brief holiday are Helen Carruthers and Leonard Johnson--He is the talented artist you see at work when you visit the Hacienda Hotel on the Strip.

Honeymooning at the Sands Hotel are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hall of Chicago. Mrs. Hall is the former Janice Smith, daughter of Illinois State Representative, Calvin Smith and Mrs. Nellie Smith, cousins of the VOICE'S Dorothy Johnson.
