

We've Been WONDERING

WHY that self-styled expert on community affairs came on with the lame statement that "Welfare makes it easy for bad girls to have babies. We've got news for you Daddio -- "BAD GIRLS DON'T HAVE BABIES".

WHY the Big Brain Boss Charlie of that certain fast-moving sub-division in Northwest Bronzeville is so out of step with the times --like employing eight "Greys" to one "Beige" when 'Bro' is the buyer of everything that is sold there.

WHY Poor Henry's Buddy-Boy--that bald-dome, four-eyed, "Kook" operator of 'Bistro a la Cool' doesn't call the press whenever there is special 'happenings' in the Joint instead of cussin' us out when we don't make the scene. Another solution might be to gift us with a crystal ball.
? ? ? ? ?

WHY since sex impulses are present in everyone (or almost everyone), that subject remains one that some can't, or won't discuss with their children--the real tragedy being that when children ask questions, they either get cuffed about or scolded for being too "fast" or receive evasive answers.
? ? ? ? ?

WHY there isn't something that we can do to (or about) a person who makes a statement like (quote) "Ah done been in Vegas 23 years--ain't neyair voted an ah ain't ABOUT to vote lessen dey pays me" (unquote).
? ? ? ? ?

WHY the sequences of 2-3-4-12-13-14-16-21, and 42-44-47-52-63-64-66-67, are supposed to be lucky for persons born in August, September and October.
? ? ? ? ?

WHY there aren't more persons around like Sully, Tom, and "uptight" Cardinal (Cove Clan). Instead of importing help they need, they are training 'locals' at their own expense. (Bravo, Gents, Bravo)
? ? ? ? ?

WHY that cute little brown-skinned Secretary for the P.A.L. organization who "took on" the VOICE in defense of her white masters didn't insist that the metropolitan newspaper run her letter sans editing as she did with the VOICE.
? ? ? ? ?

WHY our groovy "Exalted One" doesn't present his sibling (who aspires to an elective political office) with a copy of Roberts Rules of Order and several helpful "How To" essays.
? ? ? ? ?

WHY of the six racial groups of mankind--archaic white, caucasoid, australoid, mongoloid, amerindian and negroid--only the latter's history in this free world of America is one long saga of misery, strife, and woe.

HENRY 'P.' (for 'Puzzled')

The Scene and The Seen

TO BE young, to be pretty, to be a '66 Deb might mean your name was Jackie Hall, or Mary Washington two of the lovely group of sub-debs who make their official bow to society at the Cotillion Ball in November...Here Jackie Hall (left) and Mary Washington (right) model day and evening wear at the recent Fashion Show the girls staged for members of their sponsoring organization, Les Femmes Douze.

"Andy" Anderson, Friendly Liquor Store's "Cool" Clerk knows he doesn't need to waste salesmanship moving that Champagne that is currently Friendly's special "Special". At $2.02 a Fifth (including tax), customers Walter Crouch (left) and Arthur Lyons say "Just keep 'em coming".

RINGLING BROTHERS & Barnum & Bailey, and the Shriners Circus too, better watch your laurels. Operation Independence's Child Care Center produced their own "Circus Day" recently, complete with 'wild animals' performing artists, popcorn, peanuts balloons, and all the starry-eyed excitement only the "Big Top" offers.
