By EDDYE K. KIM

A BIRTHDAY BALL

Somebody had a bright idea that provided an evening of much gaiety at the Elks Lodge on Jackson Street, Saturday, night when a group of Elks and Daughters hosted a joint celebration of their birthdays... Elk celebrants were Exalted Ruler, Willie Neal, Past Exalted Ruler, Dr. Roy George de Hay, Daughters Myrtle Banks, Linda Ward, Ida Mae Crockett, R. Williams; Elks Mimmie Love and Joe Lee Robinson.

As someone remarked "All that's necessary to say is that The Texas Tornados are providing the music, and you know it's going to swing", and that's what happened at the birthday party... "Candy" Go-Go girl from Bob Bailey's Sugar Hill added a little spice to the entertainment as she performed (especially for Henry Miller) who is a new Elk recruit.
