

Urban League Award To Deserving Family

PHILADELPHIA - (NPI)--The parents of 11 children have received the fourth annual National Urban League Family-of-the-Year Award. Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Henry of Philadelphia were honored for their "loving dedication to the highest ideals of family life and for the wisdom and courage in achieving them."

All their children, whose ages range from 31 to 52, hold high managerial and professional positions.

One of their children, Richard, 36, is editor of the Negro magazine "Now."

Walter Lester, Jr., 50, is a physician who heads the Department of Medicine at Howard university.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Henry are 69. They were married in 1913 when they were 16.

Turnabout Provides Needed Understanding

CHICAGO - (NPI)--Rosetta Stone, a High School senior, and her sister, Bobby,--who will be a sophomore at the Chicago Circle campus, University of Illinois in September--had as their house guest recently a young Swedish visitor who entertained them during their stay in Sweden last spring.

Kerstin Kagelius of Stockholm, visited with the Stones in their home in the Robert R. Taylor housing project. During Kerstin's stay, Mrs. Alice Stone, mother of Rosetta and Bobby, accompanied the girls on an official visit with Mayor Richard J. Daley, who presented a miniature Chicago flag to Kerstin as a souvenir of her visit.

The group was introduced to the mayor by Russell R. DeBow, his Administrative assistant.

Rosetta and Bobby were among the 53 Chicago youngsters who made a study tour to Sweden and Denmark. The tour was arranged by Dr. and Mrs. Thaddeus Kistrubala. Dr. Kistrubala, who was formerly director of the Mental Health Division of the Chicago Board of Health, now heads the Stone-Brandel Center, a private mental health organization.

VOTER'S LEAGUE PREXY and VEEP

ACCEPTED rules of the gentleman's role and rules of protocol can get pretty sticky--We offer the picture of the new Voter's League President and Vice President to make the point. Now everybody knows the Veep is solidly behind the Prez, but the new Voter's League President, dedicated as he is to community and civic work; knowledgeable as he is about protocol, is in a bind . . . For Clarence Ray, a gentleman of the first water in everybody's book, is just that--a gentleman first. So he backs his charming and personable vice-president, Sarah Ann Knight, . . .
