RADIANT REGINA FEASTER is (as they say in certain circles) definitely the happiest horse in this race--and why not?--It was the occasion of the 3rd birthday of the delightful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Feaster and she was the undisputed Queen at a sumptuous celebration of the event. (Daddy is the VOICE Advertising Production Manager)... Party guests (from left to right) are Cheryl Lea, Anthony Wayne Bailey, Paul Edward Lewis, (Regina), Terry Lee Lewis, Jerome Lewis, and Joyce V. Gills.

KIRK TOPS JAZZ POLL

CHICAGO - (NPI)--ROLAND KIRK has once again won first place honors in Downbeat's annual international jazz critics poll. He took the top award in Miscellaneous Instruments and Flute. The international awards are the sixth consecutive Downbeat annual awards won by the American instrumentalist. Since 1960, the multi-talented musician-composer has won 25 top awards in Miscellaneous Instruments and Flute, in American and European annual international jazz polls.

APATHY TO APARTHEID ATTACKED

GENEVA, Switzerland - (NPI)--"Tears of despair are welling up" in Africa over the World court's dismissal of a legal attack on South Africa's apartheid--racial segregation--practices in the League of Nations-mandated South West Africa, declared the Rev. Adeolu Adegbola, Methodist clergyman, and principal, Immanuel college, United Theological Seminary, Ibadan, Western Nigeria. Speaking to the World Conference on Church and society, he asked, "How long can we rest satisfied with a concept of abstract law not based on deep moral conviction?"

Convert Exposes Bigotry

SAN FRANCISCO - two, made public a section of the Olympic Club's Charter which specifies "only white male citizens" can be members. She added that unless the policy is changed, she and other Catholics would mount a picket line around the chancery office and the club headquarters.
