CASSIUS CLAY (Muhammad Ali) puts his Heavyweight title on the line Saturday against Germany's "Hope," CARL MILDENBERGER, a south paw....Most boxing critics consider left handed fighters difficult foe for the conventional righthander to do battle with....Cocky as the Champ is, he is indisputably a great fighter and it is unlikely he will have trouble with anyone with whom he is confronted in the ring no matter how awkward his opponent's style may be. You can bet the "WINNER AND STILL CHAMP" will be CLAY after his Saturday night's encounter with the German Champ. CHUCK calls it CASSIUS CLAY in 10 rounds by TKO or K.O.

JOE LOUIS, former World's Heavyweight Champ, arrived in Germany last week and visited the camps of both the Champ and challenger MILDENBERGER. Impressed by both fighters' work-outs, JOE said this will be one of CLAY'S toughest fight. JOE also remarked that in his long career (one that saw him meet more challengers than any Champ in history), he had never fought a southpaw.

EMILE GRIFFITH, Middleweight Champion of the World has signed for a rematch with JOEY ARCHER (whereabouts of the bout yet undecided). Everybody here is hoping that Las Vegas, greatest boxing city of them all, will be the site. The last time the two met, it was a beaut, and Vegas deserves the call.

JOE CLARK who has been struggling for years to get a break in boxing circles, gets the chance of a lifetime when he tangles with RALPH DUPAS, one time Junior Welterweight World Champ, at the Fremont tonight (Thursday). Best of Luck from all the boys at the All American Boys Club to CLARK who remind him to just remember some of the old tricks RED WILLIAMS and CHUCK HARRIS taught him - The Winner - CLARK.

By the way, JOE is now being handled by trainer, STAN TISCHLER, a good fighter of yesteryear, and managed by IRVIN STARR of ACE Loan Co., a gentleman all the way. These two have done much to help CLARK become the fighter he has become to get the chance he deserves.

SONNY LISTON, another former World Heavyweight Champ, is now back at home in dear old Las Vegas, after a successful tour of Europe. The way it looks, the former Champ will soon be knocking at the door of the greatest....Best of luck, SONNY -- a great guy who can be seen in and out of the COVE with his old pal, politician HENRY BASS.

Australian golfer, BRUCE DEVLIN won the grand prize of $35,000 in England's Carling Championship....BILLY CASPER, America's great competitor, tried gamely to overtake the leader, but was felled by one stroke and settled for second prize - no small matter - over $18,000.

The hectic National League Pennant race is still a cliff hanger - the GIANT-DODGER series taking place as this is written, will certainly affect the finish - DODGER'S won a big one Labor Day -- The only real certainty is that the top three will be the GIANTS, PIRATES and DODGERS as it has been; with the Phillies trying gamely to put a winning streak together to make this a 3 team battle down to the last out. Comes October and the World Series, however, CHUCK sticks to his claim that it will be the GIANTS and the ORIOLES - Like we said, too much WILLIE MAYS, and not enough KOUFAX, CLEMENTE or LARRY JACKSON for the other great teams.

English FOOTBALL LEAGUE Secretary, ALAN HARDAKER, turned down a $30,800 a year job offer to become Secretary-Manager of the proposed American National Professional Soccer League.

Little WILLIE FLUCKER, Jr., of the Pony League City Champion GIANTS, received his trophy as outstanding short stop and great team player....A salute to all the GIANTS and best wishes for Little WILLIE to continue his outstanding play from the All American Boys Club.

Why The Reds Have The Blues

BALTIMORE - (NPI) -- Outfielder Frank Robinson of the pennant-bent Baltimore Orioles has found American League pitching to his liking and is challenging to capture the loop's big three title. Already leading the AL with a prodigious 40 home-run total, the ex-Cincinnati Reds star, took over the batting lead early last week with a .312 percentage (one ahead of previous pacesetter Tony Oliva of the Minnesota Twins), and was only two behind teammate Boog Powell in the run-batted-in category.
