

WHO'S WHO and doing what

By EDDYE K. KIM

(Heartfelt thanks for the interest expressed by those of you who missed Ye Ole Scribe during my recent bout with the Flu).

EXCITING CONCLAVE AHEAD

All the glamour and excitement of a local premier (with the women of GAMMA PHIDELTA Sorority in the role of star participants) will prevail with the local ALPHA RHO Chapter hosting the Sorority's Western Regional Conference at the Mint Hotel October 28-29-30.

This unique type of "Vacation-Convention" is a first among Greek letter Sorority groups in the State. Gamma Phi Delta Sorority is a national business and professional women's organization with a peerless record of contribution to worthwhile charities and cultural development of all communities where a Chapter exists. More than one hundred fifty women are expected to attend next month's three-day Regional. (The stag line has already begun to form).

IT'S GREEK TO THEM

The Greeks have a word for it--"Amorphia"--meaning beauty. You find yourself surrounded by it when you enter CAESAR'S PALACE where we were the dinner guests of Mr. Larry Minters. Following a marvelous dinner, we went into Nero's Nook to catch the Lounge Show... There, two of our local beauties were on duty as cocktail waitresses. One is Mrs. Peggy Walker, a real beauty, whose husband, Richard, is the first Negro dealer in any hotel or club on Fremont street; the other is cute and petite Mrs. Dede Cotton who was the first Negro cocktail waitress to break Fremont street's "color" barrier before going to Caesar's Palace.

HONEYMOON EXPRESS

Mrs. Willie Steele (Sharon Abington) has joined hubby, Willie, in San Diego, California, his present Naval duty assignment. Sharon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Onward Abington of this city. Willie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Celles Steele of San Diego.

EARL WYNN CLAIMS BRIDE IN NEW YORK CEREMONY

The New Lots (New York suburb) Dutch Reformed Church, an historical landmark dating back to 1749, was the locale of the recent ceremony performed by The Reverend Malcolm Evans, that united Miss Patricia Washington and our own Earl Wynn. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Washington of Brooklyn, New York.

The bride wore a gown of white peau de soie styled on empire lines. Her veil of French illusion was of waist length, and she carried lilies of the valley, stephanotis and ivy. Her maid of honor was Miss Eleanor Bilbae of Brooklyn, N.Y. The bride's cousin, Earl Washington of Forest Hills, New York, served as best man. A large reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the wedding ceremony.

The bride is an alumnus of Hunter College. It was there that she and Earl met when he was doing graduate work in Retardation. He is an alumnus of A&T College in North Carolina and earned his Master's Degree at Columbia University. Wynn is executive secretary of the Nevada Commission on Equal Rights for Citizens.

NOW WE FIND IT

A frantic search for notes on the Helen Caruthers lavish Western Cook-out reported here last week turned up nothing as we sat down to column the event--Now that it has turned up, ye columnist understands the need for the notes... A check reveals that missing in last week's account, was the listing of distinguished guests at the festive affair. Attending the gala party were Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Garland; Attorney and Mrs. Reid and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Arrington and children, Dr. and Mrs. Charles West, (Dottie in a gorgeous shocking pink hat), Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Patten and children, Mr. and Mrs. Onward Abington, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Knight, Attorney and Mrs. Charles Kellar, Mrs. Alice Hunt and Mrs. Helen Arrington of New York, Mrs. Ann Bailey and children, Mrs. Grace McGlothen and sons, Mrs. Deborah Moore and children, Miss Margie Elliott, Mrs. Eddy Kim, Mr. Henry Wells, Miss Jovanna Williams, Mrs. Dora Harris, Mrs. Helen Crozier and children, Mrs. Mary Bishop and children, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wynn and many others.

Trying the new dances taught by Miss Jovanna Williams were: Mrs. Sondra Reid, Mrs. Natalie Arrington, Mrs. Grace McGlothen, and Mrs. Clarence Ray. The group stomped until midnight.
