COLUMBIA, S.C. - (NPI)--The Team Ministry to Southern Cities, of the United Presbyterian Commission on Religion and Race, has scheduled a conference on "The Racial Revolution in Christian perspective" for Oct. 18. The team ministry is made up of 12 Protestant and Roman Catholic agencies--including the AME Church. The conference will include discussion groups on problems of employment, education, housing and the inner dimensions of prejudice.

CULLOWHEE, N.C. (NPI)--A call for a "new tolerance" that acknowledges the rights of the radical left and the "unreasonable ardent" right was made by Methodist Bishop Earl G. Hunt, Jr., Charlotte, during an address at Western Carolina college recently. The bishop declared, "Racism is archaic, and the world in the years ahead will not belong only to the white man, but also to his non-white brothers."

MACON, Ga. - (NPI) --"I have committed the unpardonable sin--a Southern minister preaching integration in a Southern town." That was the way Dr. Thomas J. Holmes explained his dismissal as pastor of Tammall Baptist Church on the campus of Mercer university. Two of his assistants were fired with him. In June, the church admitted two Negroes attending an Office of Economic Opportunity "Upward Bound" program at Mercer. Later, it voted to refuse to seat any Negroes in the future.

locally by Joseph H. Mankins.

Mr. Anderson, 34, is married to the popular ex-Clairol model, Bernadine, and is the father of two children. Anderson was formerly an Accounting Advisor with the Unity Capital Corporation and was District Manager for the Mark Twain Life Insurance Company. Anderson was born in New York.

Mrs. White, mother of five, is married to Primas White who is Vice-President of Local #872, Laborers Union. Mrs. White is well known for her community and civic activities, is a member of the P.T.A., and is also a member and past vice-president of Las Vegas Womens Democratic Club West.

In making the announcement, Neblett said he is encouraged by the response of the hotel industry to the concept of training and feels that the program will be mutually beneficial to the industry and the citizens of Las Vegas.
