Another Honor For Hero

WYANDANCH, L.I. - (NPI)--This predominantly Negro community has named its new elementary school after an 18-year-old paratrooper from Chicago who received the Congressional Medal of Honor posthumously for his valor in Viet Nam.

The 870-pupil school, which cost $1.3 million, will be named after the late Pfc. Milton Olive, III who threw himself on a live grenade to save his fellow GIs, "without worrying about their race, creed, or color."

Mr. and Mrs. Milton I. Olive, II, of Chicago, who received the Medal of Honor from President Johnson on behalf of their late son, attended opening ceremonies at the 29-room school.

Negro Market Discussed

HOW TO SUCCEED IN BUSINESS BY TRYING might easily be the best way to describe this picture... Jerry Lovelace and P. R. Whitehead (right) of A A F Furnitures, 1600 Fremont, and Bob Arrington, Las Vegas VOICE advertising representative (left) discuss marketing analysts' reports of the astronomical Negro market so often disdained, or ignored, by marketeers... Lovelace and Whitehead obviously haven't stayed in the furniture and financing business for 15 years by not listening and learning.

Plead For Racial Calm

LOS ANGELES - (NPI)--Several members of the Sons of Watts--a group of former gang members who have gone straight--went on the radio in an appeal for racial calm. The teenagers, who conceded their participation in the Watts riots, have changed their tune.

INSTEAD OF tearing up the area, they have painted and placed trash containers throughout the Watts area and have set up a security patrol to guard business property for some local merchants. They also are setting up traffic signs in Watts housing projects, and are planning a self-help training course in upholstering and furniture repair.

The group, made up of 130 youths, is organized as the Sons of Watts Improvement association with headquarters in an abandoned gasoline station.
