The Chicago Bears shellacked the Los Angeles Rams 17-10 with GALE SAYERS looking like his old self again... Washington Redskins upset the favorite undefeated St. Louis Cardinals while the Cleveland Browns were managing their own upset over the previously undefeated Dallas Cowboys 30-21.

The Miami Dolphins with COOKIE GILCHRIST now on their roster upset the Houston Oilers for their second win 20-13... The Boston Patriots surprised even themselves when they spoiled the San Diego Chargers 35-17... The Baltimore Colts just did edge out the fighting Minnesota Vikings as did the San Francisco '49'ers in defeating the Detroit Lions 27-24... The Oakland Raiders upset the New York Jets 24-21.

A brand new kind of donnybrook in the boxing game developed when CARLOS ORTIZ literally had his title taken away from him in Mexico City... ORTIZ had been down once in the fight but rallied to have SUGAR RAMOS in terrible shape around the eyes. BILLY CONN, a great fighter of the JOE LOUIS era, called the fight to be halted in the fifth round due to the really bad condition of RAMOS' eyes. After the doctor's examination of the eye, the fight was called and ORTIZ declared the winner... Then the doctor decided RAMOS' eyes were in good enough condition to continue the fight, but referee CONN ruled that since the fight had already been called, ORTIZ should not have to fight again in that particular contest, and declared ORTIZ still Lightweight Champion... However, the WBA official said if the fight was not renewed, he was left with no alternative but to declare SUGAR RAMOS the new Lightweight Cham-

...ion. So there you have it, and until the results of an investigation of the matter is forthcoming, SUGAR RAMOS is the Lightweight Champion of the World.

There's to be a great fight at the Fremont this week when BILLY WALKER clashes with TONY MONTANA... You can bet this will be a good one because whenever these warriors meet, they come to fight.

JOE CLARK fought his heart out at the Silver Slipper last Monday night against JOHNNY BROOKS for the Nevada Welterweight Championship which was won by BROOKS. But, in losing, dandy JOE CLARK had nothing to be ashamed of because he truly was a great fighter that night, and was leading on all cards going into the 9th round when through some mishap, he got his jaw broken. Even that didn't faze the stalwart CLARK who fought the last three rounds in agonizing pain... Like all the true gladiators of the game, he wouldn't quit, but stayed in there and fought 'till the end.

CHUCK thought the least CLARK would get would be a draw if not the decision which would make him Nevada's new Welterweight titleholder, but he got neither one as all the judges awarded the victory to BROOKS. Sorry, JOE, you did your best--maybe a few new judges could help straighten this fight game out here on the local scene.

JOHNNY JAMES GILMORE, the new heavy-weight sensation, meets R. L. LEWIS of Phoenix, Arizona at the Fremont this week. Chuck believes JAMES will go all the way and that's not just because his handlers have hired Chuck to train their young hopeful.

By NEGRO PRESS INTERNATIONAL

CANYON, Texas - (NPI)--If it were left to Coach Joe Kerbel, West Texas State University, Hank Washington would surely become a professional football quarterback. Singing the praises of his rifle-armed tan quarterback recently, Kerbel said: "I don't know whether he will become the first Negro pro quarterback, but if I was coaching a pro team, I would be after one quarterback--Hank Washington."

CLOUDED RECORD

PATTERSON, N.J. - (NPI)--Police records show that former top-ranked middleweight boxer Rubin (Hurricane) Carter, who, along with another man, is being charged with murdering a bartender and two customers in a local tavern, once spent time as a youth in reform schools and four years in the Trenton State prison for assault and battery. Carter, at first arrested, questioned and released was re-arrested after testimony of a witness to the shooting in which the bartender and a male and a female customer were fatally wounded. Police theorized robbery was the motive.

DISCOVERS DURABLE JAMAICAN

NEW YORK - (NPI)--Former welterweight and middleweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson has discovered a durable, promising fighter for his ex-manager, George Gainford. He is middleweight Milo Calhoun, whom Sugar Ray first saw when he was in Kingston, Jamaica, last February, and whom Gainford calls a "durable," two-fisted action fighter of the Henry Armstrong type, whose only shortcoming is defense.
