

We've Been WONDERING

WHY the management of that certain "Tobacco Road" apartment dwelling on upper 'C' street doesn't climb out of bag phoney... Imagine advertising "For Colored People Only"? Afterthought--maybe they feel only the Beige are silly enough to go for the oke doke.

WHY our podner, R. B. (up Mercury Way) after getting a week in the street for munching on a hunk of rabbit, nowadays can't stand the sight of one. Could the $128.75 that he won't collect this Friday be the reason? (Shoot the habit to me, Rabbit!)

WHY that certain 'balling' broad and 'unwed mother of six' doesn't get the message that "Charity begins at home"... The little tykes didn't ask to come here and they are definitely not the responsibility of friends and neighbors.

WHY "Cape" adopts such a halo-wearing attitude when out with spouse beautiful. He has nothing to worry about his taste for hog maws and chitterlings... Soul food gasses Poor Henry, too.

? ? ? ? ?

WHY that high echelon City Cop doesn't take off the rose-colored specs and get a first hand gander at the happenings... The law clearly states "innocent until PROVEN guilty"--Not his way, which is sort of "bass ackwards".

? ? ? ? ?

WHY the sequences of 13-23-33-9-19-20-30, and 42-44-46-48-51-52-63-64, are supposed to be lucky for persons born in June, July, and August.

? ? ? ? ?

WHY Tom (Mix Well) Whittle doesn't make up his mind and settle for one shade... He has tried every hue in the rainbow (Guess the old saying has merit after all--"Variety is the spice of life".

WHY any Soul voter could go against a team like Sawyer and Woodrow Wilson. They ain't in the same party, but they are both on our team, and that is all that counts when we are trying to win--We're not born with any party affiliation but we're all born "Negro" and don't ever forget it--nobody else does.

? ? ? ? ?

WHY that Johnson Boy (Cove) Robert H, that is, has to act so smug with the other gents of his craft... We've got news for him--the only reason the customers stand in line for his shines is that the full view window in his joint takes in all the scenes.

? ? ? ? ?

WHY certain tan Republicans who voted for Senator Cannon in 1964 seem to have forgotten why... They went for Cannon because he was a knight in shining togs while his opponent was supporting Goldwater. Puzzlin' Paul still supports the Bilgewater image, while good ole Guv. Grant is still our ace just like he has been for the past 8 years. People with soul don't put down old friends for new promises by the enemy.

The Scene and The Seen

A BREATH OF FRESH AIR--No smoke-filled back-room politicking--Adorable Alex Jackson is filled with delight at nature and growing pains as his adoring parents, Freddie and Helen Jackson experience the same delight at their youngsters' growing.

DELIGHT at Woodrow Wilson's candidacy is not limited to only those of voting age--Here Mr. Wilson is assured of the moral support of the sub-teen set. They're old enough to know their future is in capable hands with W. W. as a representative in the State Legislature.

HOW TO WIN AN ELECTION--Get the most enthusiastic, the most dedicated, the hardest working, and the savviest Gals in town in your corner--In this particular scene, Assemblymatic candidate Woodrow Wilson poses with "working" supporters, most of whom had to come out of the kitchen where they had toiled for hours serving up the tasty Mexican fare served at Saturday's Fun-Fund Raiser at Red Williams' "The Place" where literally hundreds turned out to assure the popular candidate of their backing and their votes.

COMPLACENCY of the voter and apathy over elections we are too aware of, but this is ridiculous...Cliff (Dapper Dan?) Burns was caught "retiring" at the Bar at the Wilson party--If the Party wasn't over when this photo was snapped, Dapper Dan has got to be the "Party-Pooper" of all times.
