UNDER- STANDING

CLEVELAND--(NPI)--An appeal to American Jews to intensify efforts to help Negroes, despite alleged anti-Semitic overtones in statements of Negro extremists was made by Morris E. Abram, president, American Jewish committee, last week. Though decrying the anti-Semitic outbursts, Abrams noted, "When people strike out, especially people who have been deprived, they usually strike out against their friends first."

MIS-UNDER- STANDING

HOOKERTON, N. C.--(NPI)--Henry Taylor, a local white grocer, is being driven out of business by the Ku-Klux Klan --because his wife is involved in a school program involving both white and Negro children. The boycott which has caused Taylor to lose half his business, is being carried on in the mistaken belief that Mrs. Taylor "is going out looking for colored children to put them in the white schools." Actually, Mrs. Taylor visits children not in school who need food, clothing or other assistance.
