ny--nor did he even bother to let us know what was happening until he took us "on the Mount" to see his fairy book white church last Tuesday morning.

The Lone Wolf Preacher has done it again. He has done what others had said could not be done. He has built and paid for a brand new church without begging any of his followers for a single penny.

THE FRUIT of his efforts sits in plain view on the Mount. It is the Greater Faith Baptist Church. We tip our humble hat to Rev. P. S. "Lone Wolf" Walker for doing so well something that could not be done.

Today is truly Thanksgiving for the parishioners of Greater Faith. We join them in their rejoicing. We join them in the pride they must feel. We join them in our respect for their pastor, Rev. P. S. Walker.

Maury Wills

LOS ANGELES--(NPI) Shortstop Maury Wills of the Los Angeles Dodgers said he decided to quit the team's recent tour of Japan after he twisted his injured right knee in the third game. Wills who had quit the tour and was AWOL until recently said it was a question of either taking care of his leg or ruining his baseball career.

A SWITCH!

NEW YORK--(NPI)-- While white parents across the country were clamoring to get their children out of integrated public schools, a group of Brooklyn white parents had other ideas. They asked that their 40 children be bused to a Negro and Puerto Rican school--and won their request, after staging a sit-in.
