THE SHOW DREW A 'BEAD' ON SUCCESS
and OUR LADIES COMPLIMENTED IT

Alpha Rho Chapter of Gamma Phi Delta Sorority, Inc., couldn't have chosen a better season for the presentation of Ebony Fashion Fair's "Colorballoo" spectacular extravaganza. Friday night, the Convention Room of the Sands Hotel was alive with beautiful women fashionably attired in glittering beaded and sequined dresses who easily matched the glamour of the scintillating show on the stage.

During the cocktail hour which preceded the show, we had opportunity to say hello to such gracious VIP figures as Supreme Justice Jon Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Bartel Herr (She is Senator-elect Helen Herr), Assemblyman-elect Woodrow Wilson, Assmblywoman-elect, Eileen Brookman, Mrs. Robert Brooks, Ways and Means Committee Chairman for the Auxiliary of the Home of the Good Shepherd, beneficiary of the Sorority's charity event.

Also spotted was Mrs. Wilbur Clark of the Desert Inn Hotel with a large party of friends as was Judge and Mrs. Walter Richards... Up-setters were Mrs. Avanelle Lewis (who arrived wearing a black sequin gown with matching sequin arm sling for her broken arm, and magnificently protected from the weather with a full length ranch mink coat) and Mrs. Virgie Fitzgerald whose gorgeous new full length mink coat was the cynosure of all eyes... Also eye-catching were Marjorie Elliott in white beaded satin that simply screamed 'm-o-n-e-y', Sarah Ann Knight in sparkling silver evening ensemble draped with a lush white mink stole, Mary Bishop, pretty as ever--this time in soft blue satin, and Sondra Reid, gorgeous in white with her flaming hair. Ultra smart, also, was Soror Clotilde Seamon who made the trip from Los Angeles with spouse Bill for the occasion... Their daughter, our own Dottie West was her usual sparkling self in white sequins (Dottie journeyed back to L.A. with parents to attend the "Performers" fabulous annual cocktail party held last Sunday).

Members from Alpha Rho's sister Chapter, Tau, were elegant in representation as they joined members of Alpha Rho, assembled on both sides of the runway as Master of Ceremonies Bob Bailey sang "Lovely Gamma Phi Delta Girl", an original composition of songwriter-musician Henry Wells with a modest lyrical assist from your columnist... Tau members Alice Key, in white satin, Hannah Brown, in white crepe trimmed with white fox, and Lucille Gee in blue chiffon were a joy to the eyes of the beholders.

Up from Los Angeles, also, was Louise Jones, house guest of the Bob Baileys and Lula Mason who was up for Maria Cole's Flamingo Hotel opening with Maria's glamorous sister, Charlotte, and attended the Fashion Fair as guest of our Gwen Weekes... Noted having a ball was Martin Black and his Shirley as they cut up touches with old and new acquaintances... The family touch was evidenced in the assistance given the Sorors by sub-deb Jackie Crozier, Helen and Hickey's daughter, and Chanda and Manuel Bishop, Mary and Sidney's progeny-- Oh, and everybody, but everybody, thought it was a happier event that Sidney Bishop was present, well on his way from recovery from recent back surgery.

REUNION FOR VISITORS

It was like old times for Mrs. C.H. Mason, who attended the recent Medical Convention with hubby, Dr. Mason... From Memphis, Tennessee, the Masons are old friends of Bishop and Mrs. C.C. Cox, and the couple remained for the Church of God in Christ's State Rally to raise funds for the State Temple... Mrs.

'Round The Clock Fashions

Mason and Bishop E.N. Webb of Reno were guest speakers at the Rally.

SR. CITIZENS XMAS PARTY

All senior citizens are invited to participate in a gala Christmas Party at Marble Manor, December 15, 1100 'I' street, which will take place at one o'clock in the afternoon... Mrs. Clara Bailey, Committee Chairman of the event requests that anyone wishing to contribute to this affair by donating fruits, candy, nuts, to be given as gifts to make some senior citizen happier should call her (Mrs. Bailey) at 382-7327, or contact any Vista Worker at Operation Independence.

Mrs. Bailey, also a VISTA worker at O.J., has double occasion for happiness--She loves being involved with the Christmas Party, but her own special Christmas gift is a visit from her children, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Breaux from Detroit.

Our best wishes to another celebrant, friend Charles Williams, on the occasion of his birthday.

A SAD NOTE

Mrs. Thelma Toms flew to San Francisco to be at the bedside of her sister who is critically ill.
