

Roberts-White Nuptials Highlight Of Holiday

For the social set, the beautiful wedding of Deborah Roberts and Lee White was the occasion perfect to begin Christmas Week. With Bishop Shaw officiating, the popular and handsome young couple recited their marital vows before a frankly adoring group of relatives and friends at the Upper Room Church of God In Christ on the evening of the first day of the Holy Week. The marriage represented the union of two of Las Vegas' most prominent and respected families... Deborah is the debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Roberts, and Lee is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther White.

For the guests, it was a touching scene when "Daddy" relinquished his daughter to her groom (upper photo left)... In center photo, the bride is seen in all her youthful radiance... Photoright, Mr. and Mrs. White toast their future happiness at the reception also held at the Church... In photo left, the newlyweds, flanked by the bride's parents on the left, and the groom's on the right, receive congratulations from VOICE publisher, Dr. Charles I. West (back to the camera).

The bride was attended by Mrs. Luther White as Matron of Honor and Bridesmaids, Mrs. David Scott, Mrs. Donald Anderson, the Misses Connie Nichols and Ethel Sullivan with Felice Roberts serving as Jr. Bridesmaid... Little Sonja White was the flower girl and Morris Chapman, Jr., the ring bearer. Luther White was his brother's Best Man, and Ushers were David Scott, James Gordon, Billy Murphy and Winston Hampton.
