Good Use For Xmas Cards

This year's used Christmas cards can be put to good use so please don't throw them away. This appeal is being made by Pastor I. D. Evans of the Westside Las Vegas Seventh-day Adventist Church, at 1048 Lawry. He wants to send them to youngsters in Korea and Indonesia where they'll help to brighten the lives of these little ones where poverty is so rampant.

"WE KEEP thinking of the three and a half billion cards which statistics say were purchased and mailed this year which will just be looked at and thrown into the trash can," Pastor Evans stated. These used cards can still serve a good purpose in Korea and Indonesia.

Over 200,000 youngsters attended Vacation Bible Schools last year and these cards will be used as rewards for learning memory verses and perfect attendance in these schools as well as being used in hospitals and orphanages. After being sorted and packed, they will be mailed to these two East Asian countries. Adventist churches throughout Nevada are participating in the project according to Pastor Evans.

Anyone wishing to contribute their cards are urged to mail them to Charles W. Meadows, Box 3602, North Las Vegas, Nevada 89030.
