A SNOWY START FOR '67

It broke the writer's heart to have to send regrets to an invitation from Dr. and Mrs. Daniel Collins, of San Francisco, to welcome the New Year with them and their family in the snow country at Kiski Lodge in the Sierra Ski area... The attractive Lodge is a mecca for San Francisco skiers. Inasmuch as we are fond of this winter sport, we are reminded that we can trek up to our own resort near Las Vegas -- Lee's Canyon.

WORLD TRAVELER

Visiting her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Till Toms, last week, was lovely Mrs. Jasper McKay (nee Crenshaw), formerly of San Francisco. Mrs. McKay is the wife of Detroit Michigan's Dr. Jasper... For seven years Mrs. McKay lived as a missionary in Secuta Spanish Morocco where, as a Bahai, she taught the way of life to believers of many races. Local Bahais, along with a number of residents interested in knowing more of the philosophy, gathered at the Toms' home, last Wednesday evening, to hear a marvelous lecture by Mrs. McKay (illustrated by color slides) on some of her experiences during her travels which has taken her as far as the African continent. Her 16-year-old son, Nicholas, who accompanied his mother on her travels, has also visited Haifa's Mount Carmel, and will be an exchange student in South America this summer.

EDDY K. KIM

When we knew Mrs. McKay in San Francisco she was the first Negro instructor of Cosmetology there, and has, now, just received an appointment as the first Negro Inspector of Beauty Schools in Detroit, Michigan. Editor's Note: (It was my privilege to meet Mrs. McKay during her all too short visit here, last week. I found her the most charming and interesting woman I had met in well over a decade.)

JUNE IN JANUARY--For Linda Sims, who became the bride of Charles E. Dayton in a ceremony held at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hall, Jr., with the Rev. E. C. Kline officiating. Linda is the daughter of Mrs. Doris Sims.

The bride was lovely in a gown featuring a white lace bodice and kelly green skirt with matching shoes and bag and bridal bouquet of carnations... Dorothy Walton, wearing a soft green suit, stood as maid of honor.

Serving the groom as best man was Thomas Wilson, Jr... Attending the ceremonies were San Hester, grandfather of the bride, Ronald Sims, the bride's brother; Mrs. Jessie Hester, bride's aunt; Theresa, Peggy, and Patricia Hall, sisters of the groom; the groom's brother, William Hall, Jr., and the groom's grandmother and cousin, Mrs. Emma Jones and Mrs. Gertrude McDowell, respectively. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reid and Mrs. Donald Clark.

SOUL FOOD AND SWINGERS

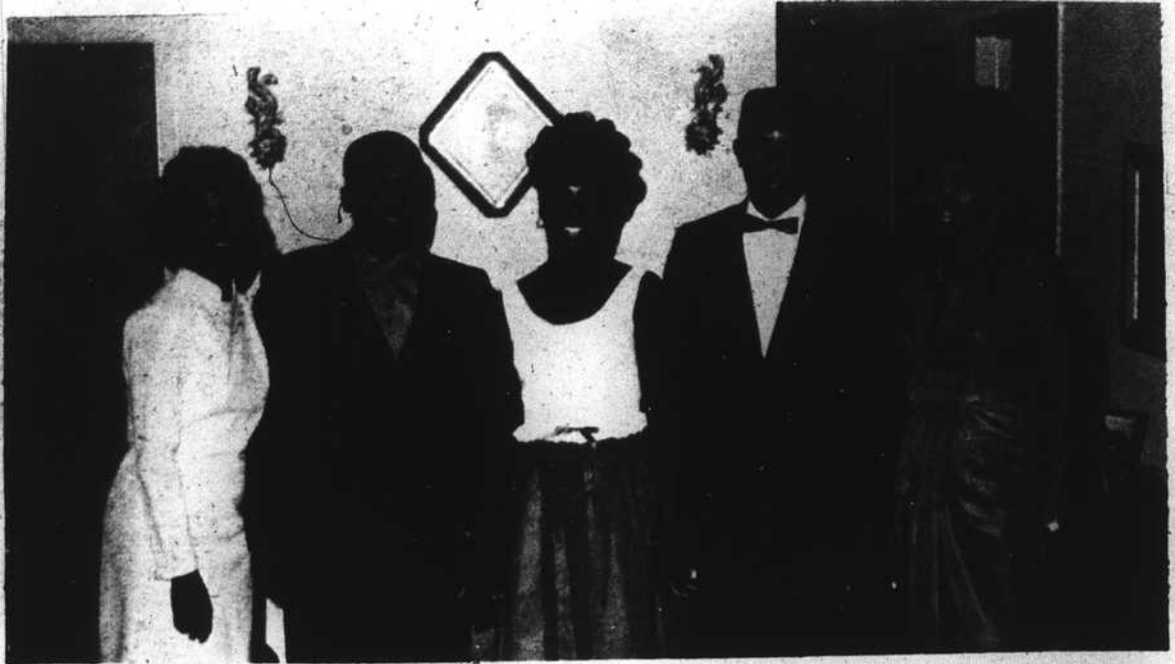

Tau Chapter of Gamma Phi Delta Sorority threw a humdinger when they served "Soul Food" dinners, Saturday, at the Texas Pit Bar-B-Que... Many of the town's "Who's Who" were seen there dining on the day's delicacy of the day--Chitterlings.

INAUGURAL BALL

It was a glittering affair for Assemblyman Woodrow Wilson and his Nora when they attended the Governor's Inaugural Ball in Reno, Saturday. Mrs. Wilson was lovely in a beaded top and flowing pink chiffon skirt--an original design of her own.

BLESSED EVENT

Sims - Payton Nuptials

Baby Loyal K. Christesen, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Loyal K. Christesen, was christened by Rev. George L. Harris of the Pilgrim Church of Christ Holiness... Godmother for the infant is Miss Gloria Williams (an aunt). Lloyd Christesen is Godfather. Baby Loyal's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. A.V. Williams of Mississippi, and Mrs. Leroy (Carrie) Christesen of Las Vegas.

It was 'Home for the Holidays' for Mrs. C. C. Cox who planed to Midland, Texas to spend Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Givens... AND back home from a Caribbean cruise with her mother, Mrs. Washington of Brooklyn, New York, is Mrs. William (Patricia) Wynn.

HIS HONOR, The Judge

Judge, Your Honor, is how Attorney Robert Reid will be addressed when he serves as Alternate Judge in Municipal Court... Celebrating the occasion of Attorney Reid's being sworn in as Judge on Friday, Bob and Ann Bailey threw an impromptu cocktail party for the newly-appointed Judge and his pretty spouse, Sondra, at the Bailey's Sugar Hill Cocktail Lounge, that evening. This marks another first for our wonderful State... The first Negro to serve as Judge in Nevada.

We must mention, ever so belatedly, that the female Santa Claus of Continental Village #1, Gwen Weekes, personally presented every child in the area with a present.
