

U.S. SENATE REPRESENTATION

From Reconstruction

BLANCHE KELSO BRUCE, only Negro to serve full term in U.S. Senate, was major figure in Reconstruction in Mississippi. A wealthy cotton planter, he also served as assessor, sheriff and school superintendent of Bolivar County.

EDWARD W. BROOKE
United State Senator
(R) Massachusetts

To Present

HIRAM RHODES REVELS, first Negro U.S. Senator, was educator and AME minister. Elected in 1870, he completed unexpired term of Jefferson Davis. Able and articulate, Revels later became president of Negro Alcorn University.

BILLY McCURDY

JESSIE HOLTON

RICHARD JACKSON

Sincerest Best Wishes

To The

Las Vegas VOICE

With Deepest Regards

For A Long And Happy Association

Thriftimart