Wes Howery To File For Commission

Wes Howery, longtime Las Vegas resident, has announced he will file for the city commissioner's race in the upcoming election, opposing incumbent Ed Fountain. A 25-year resident of Las Vegas, Howery is sales manager for a Strip hotel. He is married and father of two children, Mike, 22, serving a mission for the LDS Church, and Patti, 21, secretary-receptionist for Hotel Bonanza.

Howery served for seven years as zone sales manager and director of retail sales training for American Motors, and was vice president in charge of sales for the Garland Co., of Cleveland, Ohio, employing 2700 people. He also served as general manager for Oran Gragson Furniture Co., and was in business for himself.

QUESTION. Air Pollution Center Charge Blasted. By MIKE SLOAN, R-J Staff Writer. City Commissioner Ed Fountain's charge that Las Vegas "derives very little benefit" from the Convention Center came under fire Friday from two other Southern Nevada officials.

Fountain's Convention Center Charge Blasted. "TLL EAT your hat if Las Vegas doesn't derive a great deal of benefit from the center," said Boulder City councilman Bob Broadbent who also serves as chairman of the Clark County Fair and Recreation Board.

construction of a separate convention facility in the city of Las Vegas to rival the existing center. NORTH Las Vegas Mayor William Taylor also criticized Fountain's statement, saying, such a plan "would put the people in Clark County in the ridiculous position of competing with each other for conventions."
