

We've Been WONDERING

WHY that sporty twosome in tight fitting hip-huggers with loose ideas (currently trying to move in on the "Hooking Game") don't get the message. What adults do with their lives is their business, but using their pre-teen brother as a procurer is inviting l-o-n-g trouble.

WHY that long-time businessman and resident, who seems to be drunk on the power of 'juice', continues to give out with the impression that he can say and do anything he pleases doesn't "get with it"...Picking on the Press is the least advisable emotional outlet for those in his bag.

WHY the only time that certain professional hob nobs with the "half-world" (where he is neither welcomed nor wanted) is when he is soaked in ignorant oil? Whatever he is seeking, this is definitely not where it is.

? ? ? ? ?

WHY that certain (over thirty) female doesn't realize how ridiculous it is to berate all men because she was disappointed in one...Life is filled with disappointments, and excepts no one--Most people grow from experience, and learn from every past disappointment enough to make it an advantageous experience for the future.

WHY readers of The VOICE'S Chuck Harris are being kept so long in suspense awaiting the outcome of the imaginative sports-writer's blow by blow account of the "Fight of the Century" between Joe Louis and Muhammad Ali...Can there be any truth to the rumor that Chuck's procrastination is due to the fact he is afraid to trust his version of the outcome to the hands of the editor?...Don't worry, Chuck, the editor is opinionated as all get out, but she wouldn't ever alter an opinion voiced by a columnist because it did not agree with her own--She might scream her disagreement to high heavens, but she'd print it--Go on, and tell the world you believe Ali could whip Joe Louis... You do it, not Po' Henry.

WHY folks who've made it a habit of "singing the blues" and crying 'hard times' don't wake up to the fact that everybody, but everybody, has problems, but most people realize that others do and refrain from unloading their sad story on everyone they meet everytime they speak...Remember the story of the man who felt sorry for himself because he had no shoes until he saw another fellow being who had no legs?...Counting one's blessings is a recommended therapy for those steeped in self-pity.

WHY the sequences of 1-11-21-22-25-26-30-31, and 8-18-28-38-48-61-68-78, are supposed to be lucky for persons born in April, May and June.

? ? ? ? ?

WHY our podner, who is new to Bronzeville, doesn't stop complaining that he can't catch and do something constructive to correct the situation--Like buying a Dodge, Bryll Cream, or become an Aqua Velva Man--If we can believe Madison Street's script writers, those TV dudes do amazingly well with the above-mentioned.

WHY now that girls are wearing their hair short and the boys are wearing theirs long and both sexes wear identical togs, some enterprising person doesn't write a manual on what to say to whom and how to make it with which.

? ? ? ? ?

WHY those soliciting contributions, selling tickets or newspapers in front of business places, don't give consideration to those businesses when asked to move away from the premises...Once in awhile, the request is made solely on the owner or manager's dislike for the use of his premises

TODAY IS THE DAY TO WIN ONE OF THESE BIKES

JAYCEE PRIZES--The North Las Vegas Jaycees received two bicycles to be awarded after the 14th annual Progress Days Youth Physical Fitness Parade for children. Jaycees Ray Blanks and Charley Schneider accepted the bikes for the NLV club. From left, Blanks; NLV Councilman Jack Pettiti who donated a bike; J. Willows, Willow's Cycle Shop, 1500 No. Main, also a bike donor; and Schneider. The Parade will begin at Rancho High School Thursday afternoon, April 20 (today) at 4:30 p.m. Those who complete the parade route will receive a prize and a drawing ticket for the bicycles.

Other activities today include Bowling Tournament for League Bowlers at College Park Lanes as well as the All Day 35¢ open Bowling Special.

for solicitation--for the most part, the agent of the business place is acting on request of patrons who are annoyed when they come to shop and are 'pounced' on by these illegal solicitors...And many are hesitant to comply with the customers' wishes for fear of unfair accusation against the business by the community...Let's face it, a nuisance is a nuisance, and customer consideration comes first.
