

Dedicate New NLV Park

VALLEY VIEW, the newest jewel in the North Las Vegas proposed crown of parks will be unveiled at 2 p.m., Saturday, April 22, by North Las Vegas Mayor Pro-Tem, Jack R. Petitti. All members of the City Council have been invited to be in attendance by Mr. Theron Goynes, member of the Park and Recreation Advisory Board, who will act as Master of Ceremonies. Rev. Marion Bennett of Zion Methodist Church will give the benediction and Rev. Claude Parson will give the invocation.

Mayor Pro-Tem, Jack Petitti, who has been an ardent supporter of expanding parks and recreation in North Las Vegas, will officially dedicate Valley View Park to the people of North Las Vegas by removing a covering from a new massive stone sign being prepared by the Park and Recreation Department especially for the occasion.

Mayor Pro-Tem Petitti has expressed the hope that all the people living in the area of Valley View Park will make an effort to be present for the new park dedication.

MEMBERS OF the Committee working on the dedication include Mrs. Sarah Ray, Mrs. Rosie Smith, Tony McCormick, Mr. R. O. Forson, Director of Parks and Recreation--North Las Vegas; and R. E. Walpole, Superintendent of Parks. Mr. H. P. Fitzgerald, principal of the Jo Mackey School, has been asked to bring his Drum Corps to the dedication to take part in the dedication.

A surprise presentation to Mayor Pro-Tem Jack Petitti will be made by R. O. Forson, Director of Recreation & Parks, on behalf of the staff honoring Petitti for his outstanding labors in making the program "Operation Shade Tree" an outstanding success. This program provided the shade trees already planted in both Valley View and Highland Park.

A new baseball backstop has just been completed for the new park and plans are now under way for lighting the ball diamond for night play.

Other members of the North Las Vegas Park and Recreation Advisory Board with Theron Goynes include: Chairman, Dr. R. Bedotto; Vice Chairman, Hal Fincher; Mrs. Aileen O'Neill, Mr. Joseph Sanfratell, Mr. Ken Bowers, and Rev. Walley.
