By EDDYE K. KIM

OOPS! HEAP BIG GOOF

Through one of those mix-ups that happen, we're afraid too frequently in this business, Who's Who, in reporting the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Wilkins, gave the bride Mildred (nee Whalum) the wrong set of parents. Mildred is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson, and the groom, Laverne Wilkins is the son of Mrs. Mirmie Scott and Lewis Wilkins of Chicago--Our most humble apologies.

TWO MEMORABLE PARTIES

The "parties of the week" were unquestionably the two birthday celebrations held in separate homes for different honorees but matching numbers of bright-eyed youngsters having the time of their lives.

The lovely Englestad Dr. home of Mr. and Mrs. William Smith was the scene of the festive celebration honoring the birthdays of two adorable sisters, Rodell and Gloretta, 9 and 10-year-old daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Eppenjer. 60 bright-eyed youngsters enjoyed the Ice cream and cake and everything nice for the little sugar and spice girls.

THEN THERE WAS the brother-sister combination birthday party of seven-year-old Johnny and five-year-old Kim, those handsome progeny of Ann and Bob Bailey Sunday afternoon. Enjoying the gaiety were 40 youngsters and 20 mommies and dads--you can imagine how the Mills Circle residence of the Baileys was jumping with joy--for Johnny and Kim, there were lots and lots of presents and stomachs-full of all kinds of goodies.

BABIES IN THE NEWS

Tuzara Lynn White, the three-months-old adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac White, is a dark-eyed beauty like her mother, and the pride and joy of her daddy. The Matt Kelly school faculty hosted a baby shower for their fellow worker, Mrs. White.

Roderick Le Manns, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Mabry (he is the KTOO radio announcer), was blessed by Elder J. W. Logan with Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Barker standing as Godparents.

VISITORS TO OUR TOWN

Here for a recent Medical Convention was our good friend Dr. Carleton Goodlett of San Francisco who is also an old friend of VOICE publisher Dr. Charles I. West. Dr. Goodlett is the publisher of the San Francisco Sun Reporter and was a candidate for Governor in California's Primary Race last year.

Also here from San Francisco to brighten up the social scene was James Stratten, well known in the local golf circle. Stratten was recently appointed Administrative Representative to the California Youth Authority by California Governor Ronald Reagan, a salaried post with a pay range from $12,400 to $14,760.

"What a Difference 30 Years Makes" was the agreement of Delmar Long and Till Toms as the two old friends reminisced of days of yore during a recent visit of Long's to Vegas. ## A NOTABLE SOCIAL BOW

The recently organized Sillouettes Club gave their first social event at the Herbert Gerson McGuire Street Recreation Center, Friday night and obviously these young ladies have a definite contribution to make to the community on the social level as well as in civic and community activity to which they are motivated. # My Autobiography

By Geraldine Johnson

I'm Geraldine Johnson. I'm 17 and a member of the student body of Western High School's class of '68. My family and I moved from Los Angeles, California to Las Vegas, where I entered school at the age of five.

DURING MY elementary years, I was active in 4-H, Campfire Girls, the Acapella Choir, and served as the Captain of Highland's Drill Team, under the Direction of Mr. Walter Jenkins. Later, I entered Junior High, where I was a Honor Roll student, active as a Student Counsel Representative, and a member of the Pom-Pom squad at Garside Junior High.

I have maintained an "A minus" or "B plus" average, and some of my extra-curricular activities include active membership as secretary of Western High School's Future Teachers of America Association.

THIS CLUB provides students with the experience and knowledge of problems they will face as teachers. We have visited various elementary and secondary schools observing teaching methods, obtaining first-hand experience, and generally learning some of the techniques used by teachers. We have had various speakers relating their experiences in the teaching field.

I was elected as a voting delegate to represent Western High School at the FTA State Convention held April 7-8 at the Convention Center. I am also a member of the Inter-Club Counsel, Welcoming Committee, and the Spanish Club.

I have been chosen, along with two other girls, as an alternate to represent Western High School at Nevada Girls' State in Reno from June 18-24. The girls were selected on the basis of leadership, honesty, citizenship, attendance, dependability, and appearance. We will participate in forming imaginary political parties, thus learning about government and its procedures. State, county, and city officials, will be elected with Nevada representatives attending Girls' Nation in Washington, D.C. in July.

I EXPECT to enter the University of Southern California, California State, Pepperdine, or the University of Puget Sound in the fall of 1968. From a college education, I expect to be able to teach Psychology, American Literature, and Spanish. I am also interested in counseling and guidance.

Some of my hobbies are modeling, dress designing, sewing, cooking, and reading. I enjoy various kinds of sports such as bowling, water-skiing, and swimming. I am a member of our Church choir and various other religious activities.

(Editor's Note: Please see Eddy Kim's note on Miss Johnson in 'Who's Who').
