PEOPLE MAKE A PARTY

Quiet People, Noisy People, Republican People, Democrat People, and all of them Fun People, with the common serious thought to retain responsible representation in the City Government, responded to an invitation from Alice (Voice Editor) Key and the Bryn Armstrongs (he is the LV Sun's Exec. Editor) to the cocktail buffet at the Armstrong's Spencer Street home in Paradise Palms honoring City Commissioner Ed Fountain.

Among those noted wishing the beaming Commissioner and his charming spouse all the best in the June 6 election were Grant Sawyer whom everyone automatically addressed as Governor, Assemblyman and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, Assemblywomen Eileen Brookman and Flora Dungan, the Till Toms, Earl Wynn, Dr. and Mrs. Chas. West, the Ricci Carters, Judge and Mrs. Robert Reid... Deputy District Attorney Addelmar D. Guy was overheard in Alpha Fraternity talk with Henry Wells... Dorothy Johnson was being congratulated on her new state appointment... Avanelle Lewis talking fashion talk with Mrs. Elbert Lyles of Lyles Bail Bonds Service while Lyles engaged in sports and political conversation with other guests which included the Charles Kellars, the Earle Whites... Fashionable as all get-out were such lovely ladies as Mrs. H. P. Fitzgerald, Marjorie Elliott, Thelma Ray, Sarah Hughes, Mary Bishop, Hannah Brown and Sarah Ann Knight... Eye catchers of the evening were Eleanor Walker and Joyce James, adorable in their mini dresses.

MATRONS ENTERTAIN HUBBYS at AL FRESCO DINNER

The beautiful gardens and patio of Mr. and Mrs. James (Helen) Anderson on Comstock Drive was the setting of another gay affair when members of the "Just We" Bridge Club entertained members of the Joy-lottes Bridge Club along with hubbys of both clubs' members... Colorful red-checked table cloths covered tables from which the delectable buffet dinner was served--cards, swimming, and just plain summertime relaxing was the order of the day.

AFRICA'S FASHIONS

From Nairobi Kenya comes news of the amusement of African women over the latest fashion trend in New York, San Francisco, London, Rome, and Paris that call for darker skins, curlier hair, and flashy printed dresses. The African "Kanga" has been adapted into stylish cocktail and formal wear in the western world. In Johannesburg, pop singer Jeremy Taylor is cashing in on current fashion contradictions with a new "Black-White Calypso" in which he wonders why "black people wanna go white and white wanna go black".

GAMMA PHI DELTA ROUND-UP

Members of Alpha Rho Chapter of Gamma Phi Delta Sorority are hosting a cook-out Pool side Patio Party at the James Anderson home, 1134 Comstock Drive Saturday, June 3, 1967 beginning 2 p.m. until--Donation $2.

THE STAFF of the Town Tavern played host to Neighborhood youth with a swinging Block Dance recently--all the hot dogs and soda pop they could handle as they danced to the Tavern's musical combo... And speaking of youngsters, only jumping to the really young--Ann and Bob Bailey's five-year-old Kimberly made her first
