JERRY LOCKHARTS EMBARK ON MATRIMONIAL SEA

The Jerry Lockharts (nee Arthereen Walton) greeted guests at a reception in the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Gammage, Saturday evening following the couple's wedding at Second Baptist Church.

A profusion of white gladioli and white stock-filled baskets furnished the floral decor for both church ceremony and the reception. Second Baptist Church Pastor, the Rev. V.C.L. Coleman performed the marital rites and his spouse, Mrs. Coleman, furnished appropriate music at the organ console.

The pretty bride is the daughter of Mrs. Waltereen Qualls and was given in marriage by a first cousin, James Brown (not the noted singer). Arthereen wore a classic gown of white nylon with venetian lace appliques on the skirt that fell smoothly over a white satin hooped petticoat and ended in a train. A cluster of lillies of the valley held her silk illusion veil. She carried a white carnation and orchid bridal bouquet.

Honor Attendant, Mrs. Danny (Barbara) Curtis (who had hosted a bridal shower for Arthereen) wore a long sheath of mint green with lace bodice and carried pink carnations. The bridesmaids frocks of hot pink were fashioned in the same style. They wore matching hot pink headbands of soft veiling and carried pink and white carnations. The bridal attendants were Joanna Qualls, a sister; Deloris Walton, Gloria Monroe, Jackie Hall and Flower Girl Barbara Walton, a cousin of the bride and daughter of Mrs. Earline Walton.

The groom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Austel Vickers of Las Vegas, attended Grambling College in Louisiana, and was awarded a scholarship by the local Coterie Club to further his studies at NSU from which he was graduated in June. He is a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. and of Alpha Kappa Psi (National Professional Business Men's Fraternity) local chapter on NSU campus.

Serving as Jerry's Best Man was Mike Clark, NSU Student Body President and a Alpha Kappa Psi frat brother. Groomsmen were Le Roy White, Lavell Stacy, McKinley Mathews, and Theotis Thrower.

Other frat brothers present who were busily engaged in snapping pictures of the occasion as they toasted the newlyweds were Dick Fontaine, Brain Harris, Dennis Hager, Bill Ressler, ert Parry, and Arnold Fostad.

MORE GUESTS from the University included lovely Martha McCameron and Melita Fuherman who were telling us of the Business and Professional Women's Sorority, Phi Gamma Nu, to be chartered on NSU campus in September. These congenial ladies expressed the hope that local members of Gamma Phi Delta Sorority, Inc. (also a Business and Professional Women's Sorority) might soon get together with their members to exchange notes.

Enhancing the event was the tres chic appearances of the mothers. Mrs. Waltereen Qualls, mother of the bride, was stunning in a hot pink crepe dress with matching hat and white gloves. The groom's mother wore a charming green and pink paisley print with white accessories... And ever so beguiling was Mrs. James (Laura) Walton, the bride's grandmother, in an attractive green silk dress and white hat. Mrs. Walton beamed her pride in her brood--Mrs. Waltereen Qualls, mother of the bride; Mrs. Leroy (Betty) Gammage (whose home was the locale of the reception); Mrs. James (Ada) Jones, Miss Lilla Walton, and Mrs. Earline Walton.

Out-of-towners for the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Thomas of Los Angeles, and Robert Hatfield of San Bernardino, SWOOPING back into town from an extensive visit to former home, Denver, Colorado, is none other than that popular bachelor, Al Wilburn. Al's enthusiastic about a project he had in mind. He's interested in getting all former Langston University students together to form a Langston Club such as exists in Los Angeles and the Bay area--How 'Bout it, Langstonites?

TRAVELERS (COMING AND GOING)

Local beauties of Gamma Phi Delta Sorority who attended the recent Boule in Miami are all checking in here at home from various extra curricular trips here and there...Members who made the jaunt and added a visit to Nassau in the Bahamas were Mrs. Thelma Toms, Regional Director of the Sorority, Mrs. Virgie Fitzgerald, Basileus of local Alpha Rho Chapter, Mrs. Hannah Brown, Mrs. Sarah Ann Knight (who went on to New York), Mrs. Mary Bishop, Gwen Weekes, who is not a member, accompanied the girls on the excursion before bidding them 'Bye as she took off for hometown Atlantic City to visit with family and friends. Mrs. Dotie West extended her trip to include a visit to Jamaica.

Mrs. Peggy Cheatom, on vacation from the Broadway Department Store, made a quick trip to hometown, Los Angeles, before jetting off to Expo '67 in Montreal, Canada.

Four generations of family had a happy weekend at the Eleanor street home of Ray and Dorothy Johnson... Dorothy's mother, Mrs. Estelle Waldron, visiting the West Coast from Kansas City was here with her granddaughter (Dorothy's daughter) Mrs. Henry Nelson of Los Angeles and the Nelson's beauteous young sub-deb Donna. Henry, of course, was here with the family group and family friend Robert Washington accompanied the party.

Another Las Vegan returned home from summer vacationing with parents and friends in Princeton, New Jersey, is Mrs. Odis (Tish) Harris.

Rev. V.C.L. Coleman, President of Interstate Baptist Convention and Mrs. Larry (Mary) Burton, President of Interstate's Women's Division, attended the organization's recent meeting in Herlong, California... Now Rev. Coleman and Mrs. Burton are spearheading a movement to get enough locals to make a chartered bus trip to Denver, Colorado for the National Convention, Sept. 4-9. Round trip bus fare is $25.95. It is hoped that a really representative number of Las Vegans will make the trip to Denver.
