

We've Been WONDERING

WHY that long time, easy going social worker keeps holding back evidence she holds against that certain welfare head, and as yet has not brought the truth to the attention of the wheels. Could it be she is hoping the dame will straighten up after nine un-kosher years? It'll never happen, baby.

WHY those parents of teenagers seeking employment don't hip their kids to the happenings--Like #1. Office workers don't have to have experience, but must have training, including a little home training--and #2. Prospective employers ain't buying them wild hairdos and mini dresses.

WHY those realistic individuals seeking to make Cannabis Sativa (Marijuana) legal don't have a SMOKE-OUT with a group consisting of botanical experts, the fuzz, and some medicos, and accept their findings? Either that or get off "pot".

WHY Miss Juice More, who elevated herself to a sit-down office position, after a career of digging ceilings from a prone position, don't let well enough do and practice what she knows best? She should stop digging holes for others. When she enters the office, one can feel the heat of the hate her co-workers have for her. (Note: Sex is potent, but justice is still stronger--Nuff sed!)

WHY certain Soul Folks who make it to the Strip Fun Palaces just sit and stare with arms folded like they were in church, no matter how boss the entertainment? (Could it be they have never learned that applause expresses appreciation.)

WHY the sequences of 5-13-15-20-25-30-33-35, and 42-46-47-48-49-52-62-72, are supposed to be lucky for persons born in October, November, and December.
? ? ? ? ?

WHY that miserable mirror-head, Hitler-like moustache-wearing supper club owner brags that he is such a boss conversationalist? Could it be because he talks louder than the Three Sounds Play? hm, hmmm, hm.

WHY those sad sacks with long faces which never smile don't take the CHECKMATE treatment? After a session with this group, if they don't come away with an alrite feeling and ten feet tall, we will pay for their first visit to the HEADSHRINKER.

WHY those self-appointed representatives of Bronzeville had to recruit Boy Scouts and adolescent youths to help them with their Gestapo-like questioning of the folks involved in TITLE V? (Could it be that clear thinking citizens of the community refused to be identified with anything that wasn't open and above board.)
? ? ? ? ?

WHY Red Williams, since dressing up his joint, has come on with such siddy ditty airs? From what we hear, he has become so fastidious he even puts shoe trees in his sneakers.

WHY that Doll with a wash-and-wear wedding gown who is about to take her ninth step into the sea of matrimony don't start a school? There are a lot of dolls who haven't been able to catch even once and would really appreciate a few tips on how it's done.

WHY some would-be mind-reading expert took it upon themselves to mail a clipping of Henry P's crack about a business school to the reputable school of Dana McKay? The Dana McKay school enjoys the respect of its students and of the business firms by which those students are employed upon completion of the courses--and deservedly so... So don't try to read Po Henry's mind, smarty pants.

Great Wes Montgomery

other hand, no sounds or rythms can be called wrong or impossible when you're being led by your ear, coupled with imagination. After all, it's the imagination which creates the style, while the ear keeps it in check and makes sure it's sounding right."

Needless to say, few people can argue with Wes' methods. He's mesmerized audiences in Italy, Germany, France, London and several other countries.

"BUT I almost didn't get to Europe," admits Wes, "because I'm scared stiff of planes. I'd flown off and on, but after the Brooklyn crash in '60 (which I witnessed), I simply quit flying. In '65 my agents got me to fly to Europe by promising me I wouldn't have to fly once I got there.

"As it turned out, I was flying every day from one country to another. I took tranquilizers, but the damn things wouldn't start working until after I got off the plane. People tried to reassure me by saying 'man, those are Rolls-Royce engines out there', and I'd answer 'if they're so good, why can't they keep this plane still?'"

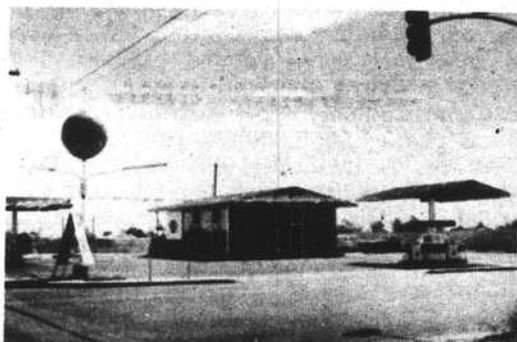

Fear of air travel coupled with a distaste for alcohol: qualities not usually found in musicians. However, Wes Montgomery has become the great name he is because he's dared to be different.

KIT CARSON COUNCIL MEETING TONIGHT

Manpower Director George Gant will address members of the Kit Carson Neighborhood Council at the Council's regular monthly business meeting, Thursday (tonight) August 24 at the Kit Carson School.

Mrs. Leona Calhoun, Council President, announced that the meeting should be of particular interest to all residents of the community and urged that everyone make a special effort to be present. The meeting is scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

Neighborhood Councils are in close communication with the residents of each school zone each Council is designed to serve, and the increasing membership of the Kit Carson Neighborhood Council indicates that residents realize that meeting and discussing individual problems at the Council meetings result in the most immediate action to resolution of those problems.

For detailed information of the purpose and activities of the Kit Carson Council, interested persons should call Council Service Worker Mrs. Addie Reid Blake at 642-5914.

JO MACKEY COUNCIL MEETING MONDAY

The Jo Mackey Neighborhood Council will offer a "double feature" speaking attraction at its regular monthly meeting Monday evening, August 28, to be held at the Aloha Trailer Courts on Miller Road at 6:30 p.m.

Council Service Worker Mrs. Sarah Ray announced that Rev. Leo Johnson will give a report on the Federal Credit Union chartered to serve residents of the community and George Gant, Director of the Manpower Center, will also address the membership.

Jo Mackey Neighborhood Council President, Charles Jones, is especially anxious that all residents of the Jo Mackey school zone be present at this highly informative session and extends a cordial invitation to all interested persons to attend.
