And now the "layered" leg...Galanos mixes and switches hosiery...three layers of fishnet, black, beige, brown and in that order. Result: an illusion of tweed!

For the "luminescent" leg...opaque tights are used as a base, topped with sheer wet antron--black over black, silver over black, silver over white or sheer wet shimmer over glittering lurex...Galanos' wet legs are shown with daytime wools and tweeds....

Time Goes By - Regina's "Four"

Justice Mowbray Dinner

Committees have been formed for the purpose of honoring Judge John Mowbray on the occasion of his birthday, on Thursday, September 21st at the Sands Hotel.

Because of Judge Mowbray's close working affiliation with a number of community organizations, the Executive Committee is composed of the heads of these groups. Mowbray was appointed to the State Supreme Court by Governor Laxalt and will assume his post October 1st. He will take up residence in Carson City.

Announcement of the Justice John C. Mowbray Recognition Dinner met with immediate response, and reservations are being received by Tom Mulroy - 382-4982; Mario Marino - 735-9111; and Joe Ward - 382-5696.

Thomas A. Mulroy, Dinner Chairman advises dress is optional for the event priced at $10 per person. A 7 p.m. Cocktail hour will precede the 8:30 Dinner.
