

BEAUTY BAR STYLE SHOW BENEFITS CHURCHES

WHO'S WHO

and doing what

By EDDYE K. KIM

A HAPPY TRIANGLE

Three of the most illustrious creators of high fashions in hair styling are the operators of The Beauty Bar on Miller Avenue.

"My role is sort of combination manager and stylist," Mrs. Josephine Hill explains. "I am interested in creations for Milady's hair," volunteers Mrs. Carolyn Funchess. "This places me in the middle," muses Mrs. Sammie Holiday, who is a stylist, helps with the management, and fills in wherever the need may be.

This trio of enterprising business women recently hosted a delightful show at Doolittle Center presenting a combination of original hair-styles and ladies smart wearing apparel ideally right for Indian Summer Days, and cool fall nights. The highly successful Fashion Show was a benefit performance for the St. James and Pleasant Grove Baptist Churches. Church members of each church competed to see which church would sell the most tickets for the event with Pastor Rev. J. L. Simmons' St. James Baptist Church emerging the winner. Pleasant Grove is pastored by Rev. J. L. Kemp.

EDDYE K. KIM

Mrs. Katherine Hill exhibited great aplomb and knowledge with descriptive commentary on the attire and hair styles of models on the runway included among whom were Mrs. Susie Jeffries (Pleasant Grove Church Mother), Mrs. Bettye Jackson (modeling hats created by Edna Williams, Los Angeles milliner), and that trio of sought after models, Eleanor Walker, Marilyn Armstrong, and Joyce James displaying up-to-the-minute fashions from Sarann's Dress Shop.

Very much in the act and creating great excitement over what's new in male attire and haircuts was male model Mack Rainey, proprietor of Mack's Barber Shop. Rainey's presentation of what the well-dressed man is wearing was an elegantly conservative black mohair suit of which was fastened very high with small buttons (the very latest).

WHIRLWIND VISITORS

Celebrities abound in the club family of the exclusive Links, and a surprise visit to Las Vegas and a reunion with local Link sister Mrs. Thelma Toms from Mrs. Ruth Greene of San Diego's social set bore out the above statement. Accompanying Mrs. Greene were Dr. and Mrs. Edgar Guinn and Dr. and Mrs. Vell Wyatt. Dr. Guinn is an outstanding surgeon and Dr. Wyatt, a most successful general practitioner.

So impressed were the visitors with the best city of them all that Mrs. Wyatt has expressed a desire to come here and attend NSU to work toward her Masters... The gay party with host and hostess Till and Thelma Toms had a grand time sipping cocktails at The Top Of The Dunes and later at breakfast at the Stardust where a hotel executive picked up the tab--Now, how 'bout that for courtesey?

BLESSED EVENTING

The old stork is flying high over Zion Methodist Church. Members of the Gospel Choir at Zion hosted a surprise baby shower for choir member Mrs. Sylvester (Gladys) Smith who is expecting her 12th child. Her complete surprise was evident as she entered the Church and the Choir members went into a enthusiastic rendition of Rock-A-Bye Baby. Choir members were also responsible for the delicious repast served.

Mrs. Harvey (La Juana) Bailey, Director of Zion's Chancellor Choir, who is also infanticipating, was similarly "showered" by the Chancellor Choir... And to prove the theory that events come in "threes", another name to be left--Opposite--Rev. J. L. Simmons and Mrs. Josephine Hill exchange mutually happy congratulations (See Eddy's story)... In second photo, left, Mrs. Susie Jeffries takes the spotlight midst thunderous applause--opposite Mack Rainey of Mack's Barber Shop models the elegant conservative look in male attire.

Who's Who columnist Eddy K. Kim covers the recent Beauty Bar Style Show which presented Fashions '68 in hair and male and female attire for the fashion conscious of all ages and vocations... Models Eleanor Walker, Marilyn Armstrong, and Joyce James display new fall fashions from Sarann's Dress Shop in top photo

added to the Zion's expectant mothers' list is that of Zion Methodist Church Pastor Rev. Marion Bennett's lovely wife, Gwendolyn. The Bennett's are the parents of a daughter, Kay.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES ON THE CHURCH SCENE

Church activities always seem to go into high gear in the month of November, and this year is no exception.

All of the Churches of God in Christ participated in the recent 26th Anniversary Celebration of Bishop and Mrs. C. C. Cox of The Upper Room Church of God in Christ. Notables playing a big part in auspicious observance were Elder E. N. Webb of Reno, Minister Paul Henry and Mrs. S. A. Porter.

Bethel Baptist Church and Pastor Rev. I. W. Wilson began a five-day program last night (Wednesday) marking the occasion of the Church's 21st birthday... Celebration will continue with varied activities through Sunday, Nov. 13. And on Sunday, Nov. 19, Bethel Baptist will host the Church's 3rd Annual Fall Tea. Sponsored by Mr. Ruben Montgomery, supervisor

KING'S

EVERYTHING FOR M'LADY

INTRODUCTORY OFFER

1 Pair Nylons With 5.00 or More Purchase With This Ad.

412 W. Bonanza Rd. DREW OLSON

Las Vegas, Nevada 384-3526

of the women's department, the Tea is scheduled for 3 p.m.

Zion Methodist Church's 2nd Annual Harvest Tea has been slated for December 3. Principal attraction of the Fall Festival Harvest Tea will be a ceremonial crowning of the Harvest Tea Queen--tickets are already in the hands of the young ladies vying for the honor.

VISTA volunteer Mrs. Clara Bailey, whose work in our community has brought so much (See EDDYE, page 9)