Doolittle Center's "Self Help" Recreation Club chose November 15 as a propitious date to combine a pre-Thanksgiving observance with a birthday celebration honoring several of the club members.

It was a "Pot Luck" affair, and members delighted the palates of each other and their guests with a variety of delicious dishes and tasty delicacies.

Birthday honorees were Mmes Cora Stewart, Daisy Buffington, and Carrie Stevenson, who graciously shared the spotlight with the club's newly elected officers installed a week prior by Rev. Marion Bennett. The club's new officers are Mrs. Mary V. Smith, President; Mrs. Leola Gray, Vice President; Mrs. Gertrude Folsom, Secretary; Mrs. Nota Williams, Sunshine Chairman, and Mrs. Mary Russau, Sunshine Treasurer.

Cosmetique Club Distribute Thanksgiving Baskets To Needy

Members of the Cosmetique Club, local beautician's organization, expressed their "grace of gratitude" for Thanksgiving by distributing baskets of food which included turkeys and all the trimmings to families whose need was incredible in this nation of prosperity and opportunity for all.

Joining the Cosmetiques in the holiday gesture were Dot's Cleaning Establishment and Larry Wilburn's Sight and Sound Center. Dot's Cleaners cleaned all the clothes of all the families, and Sight and Sound Center participated by furnishing music for the kiddies which included a gift of 15 records to each family.
