YULETIDE SPIRIT PERVADES GALA TEA

A hearty welcome, exemplifying the warmth and cheeriness of the holiday season was extended by Rev. and Mrs. Marion Bennett and members of Zion Methodist Church to the more than a hundred guests attending the Church's 2nd Annual Harvest Festival Tea at Doolittle Center, Sunday.

An excellent musical program was presented by Anthony Thomas with Mrs. Juanita Wynn at the organ and featuring the Hardiman sisters.

High point of interest again was exhibited in the beautiful table decorations and the final selection of the winning table. This unique innovation of dividing groups into clubs (each with a Captain to vie for top honor award in table decor was enthusiastically competitive and the handiwork of the individual captains and their co-workers received great admiration from the milling throng awaiting the judges' decision.

Winning table, this year, was that of Table #1, artistically arranged by the A. C. Austin Club - Lamar McDaniel, Chairman. The M. Kennard Club captained by Mrs. Almeta Moody took 2nd place, and the W. Stevenson Club, co-captained by O. N. Abington and Atha Toliver deservingly captured 3rd place honors. Mrs. Toliver served as hostess for the club table for co-captain Abington and his spouse who were away in Long Beach, California.

Judges were Mmes Woodrow Wilson, Eddie Atkinson, and Howard Babcock.

Another big winner of the afternoon was Anthony Thomas who drew the lucky number winning him a tape recorder, presented by W. H. Rogers Club captain, Rev. William H. Walker.

Emerging victorious as Harvest Festival Tea Queen was Jackie Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Smith, sponsors of the Cook Club. Runner-up was Denise Lightford of the Robert Kelley Club. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lightford. Donna Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Johnson, won the 3rd place honors for the M.D. Bennett Club.

Other princesses of the Queen's Court were Gwen Amie, Shirley Edmond, Nita Rosemond, Pamela Johnson, Doro Smith and Beverly Mathews.

Mrs. Theodora De Yampert, Chairman of the Harvest Tea and her co-Chairman, Mrs. Clara Bailey more than deserved all the kudos they received for a magnificent job in making Zion Methodist Church's 2nd Annual Tea an occasion that have all the guests eagerly anticipating the 3rd Annual Tea next year.

COMPARING BABY NOTES

Mrs. John Crear and Mrs. Marion Bennett who are awaiting their respective blessed events were noted engaged in "baby talk".

THERE'LL BE SOME CHANGES MADE

It was a baby girl for Mr. and Mrs. Joe Whitaker, Jr., born Nov. 22 at Sunrise Hospital --their first. The Whitaker doll will be called Shelby Jenine, and for Mr. and Mrs. George Simmons, it was a son born Nov. 28 at the Women's Hospital. The Simmons heir was named Stephen Patric, a match for his sister Stephanie.

The son of Rev. and Mrs. Leo Johnson was christened by his uncle, the Rev. V.C.L. Coleman at the Second Baptist Church. Mrs. Coleman is a sister of Mrs. Johnson. Godparents are Mr. and Mrs. Billy Blackwell.
