Klansmen Awaiting Trial Jailed On Kidnaping Rap

PASCAGOULA, Miss. - (NPI)--Three of 12 men under Federal Court indictment in the fatal bombing attack on Hattiesburg leader Vernon Dahmer, Sr., have been jailed on kidnaping charges.

The three-identified by the FBI as members of the White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan--were accused of abducting a man and trying to force him to give a phony statement in the Dahmer case.

Sam Holloway Bowers, Jr., 42; Cecil Victor Sessums, 31; and Deavours Nix, 44, were jailed in this city after being arrested in Laurel 60 miles away.

A fourth defendant, Billy Roy Pitts, 23, earlier had pleaded guilty to kidnaping Jack Watkins, 43, a chemical plant worker and ex-convict.

The 12 Laurel-area men are accused of conspiring to "intimidate, threaten, and coerce" Dahmer for urging other Negroes to vote. Dahmer died of burns after the Jan. 10, 1966 attack.

The Dahmer trial is expected to start soon in federal court.

Conditions Worsening

WASHINGTON - (NPI)--The black man's condition in big-city slums is getting worse, according to a report made by the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights.

An attack on low-income-area problems should be the nation's "first priority," according to the panel, which found that Negroes' hopes of escaping the slums were decreasing.

The commission warned of mounting violence unless needed action is taken.
