Gary Mayor Cracksdown

GARY, Ind. - (NPI)--This city's new mayor took a look at prostitutes sitting in the windows on Adams street--and didn't like what he saw. So Richard G. Hatcher, concerned about the "breakdown of law and order in the community," announced a crackdown on vice and crime in the Steel City--sometimes also called the "peel" and "deal" city.

Conceding that "people have problems walking down the street," the mayor said that the "cancer of permissiveness in crime must be stopped." He is looking for a new chief of police to clean up the city.

"Activists" Inactivated

WAUKEGAN, Ill. - (NPI)--Thirteen black power leaders have been seized in narcotics raids by federal and state agents.

Among those arrested is William Thomas, identified by police as a spokesman for Proterights, a local black power group. The other 12 were also described as racial activists.

Police said they found two loaded rifles, a pistol, 100 rounds of rifle literature, and a suitcase filled with black power literature in Thomas' apartment.

The 13 were charged with selling narcotics. Some were accused of possessing and conspiracy to sell narcotics.
