

WHO'S WHO and doing what

By EDDYE K. KIM

ALEXANDER GRAHAM BELL A BOON TO SOCIAL SCENE

Have you ever thought where society would be without Bell's invention? The life blood of the successful hostess and of the hard-driving committee woman is the telephone. For example, benefits are planned, sponsors and volunteer workers obtained, and guest lists completed, all by telephone. Little wonder then, that it is almost impossible to contact the city's busiest women by telephone without first suffering the frustration of the buzz-z-z of a busy line.

The result is, that more and more indignant husbands, unable to get through to their 'telephone visiting' wives, insist on two telephones. One is unlisted (for family use), and the other is in the directory for friends and fellow club members.

FOR A LOVELIER YOU

When is a woman most attractive? There's only one answer -- when she looks as lovely as she possibly can, whether she is sweet sixteen, or any multiple thereof. The key to lovely looks at any age is good grooming. In fact, many older women qualify as beauties through being fastidious, while younger damsels wonder how it is done.

OUT -- are the wild and untidy hairdos, and the un-natural make-up. How about the 'too tight' hippie pants, and the headgear of rollers, some wear in public? There is a time, and place for them, but the fastidious girls always knows when. When sloppiness goes so far that it is open to scorn, it is surely time for a change. The whole look for Spring is femininity and neatness.

A CHECK LIST FOR BETTER GROOMING

Check and double check the last minute details of your appearance. Eliminate anything that renders you less glamorous in the public eye.

CHECK:

- Slip showing.
- Shoulders for dandruff, stray hairs, dark dresses for lint, and powder marks.
- For anything less than a sweetbreath.
- Stockings for snags that will become runs later.

CHECK:

- The back of your head, by using two mirrors.
- Your makeup near a window in daylight, or by the light of an unshaded bulb. This cruel illumination will show whether or not your complexion cover is patchy.
- Right shade of lipstick and eye makeup.

NOW--GO OUT AND DAZZLE THEM!

A POINT IN FACT

In the frame of reference of the writer's dissertation on good grooming -- "A Teenager's Guide To A Stylish Wardrobe" could easily have been the title of the recent fashion show staged by the Powder Puff Grooming Club of Cashman Jr. High School. The event was sponsored by Mrs. Deborah Moore, Mrs. Dolores Fallon, and Miss Beverly Benich.

POST-NOTES ON

Day Dreams Have All Come True For Her

NOT TOO LONG AGO, Marvia Woody, who hails from Absecon, N.J. -- She's now Airman Second Class Marvia Lyons -- was given to building air castles about how her adult life would turn out. As a child, she had set her sights on joining the air force, marrying a handsome man, and seeing the world. At 22, all her dreams have come true, including the marriage and the accompanying domestic life (shown above) with her husband, Airman Second Class Robert Lyons, Jr., of Westbury, Long Island. Both are in the Air Force (she's a WAF), both are assigned to Headquarters, 327th Air Division, Taipei Air Station, and both have had a chance to see part of the world--that part between their home and Taiwan, since last March 10. PAST EVENTS

An incredible number of unfortunate circumstances conspired to prohibit the weekly chronicle of social events in this space for the past several weeks. Our sincerest apologies to all... It was a festive holiday season and the parties were merrier and even more elegant than ever. Belated as it is, mention must be made of events (and news notes gathered) during that period... Like at the E.G. & G. Christmas party at the Riviera Hotel where my spouse and I were guests of Dr. and Mrs. William Pearson, it was great news to hear our host's brother, Attorney J. Richmond Pearson, of Birmingham, Alabama had just been appointed 1st Ass't D.A. in that state... Dr. Pearson, Personnel Assistant with E.G. & G. had been on a tour of Southern Colleges and Universities to invite graduates and instructors to Las Vegas for job interviews with the Company. (Ten interested persons -- from the various schools -- accepted the invitation, and were entertained at a cocktail party by the Pearsons during their stay here.

CREAR REUNION OVER

One of the happiest family holiday reunions was that of Dr. and Mrs. John Crear who were bubbling with the yuletide spirit at having Doc's mother, Mrs. Josie Crear (from Houston, Texas) with them as well as the Crear teen-age twins Ricky and Vickie for whom the Crears threw a marvelous dancing party for 50 teenage guests before the delightful exuberant twins had to return to school in Los Angeles. Note -- The Crears "blessed event" is scheduled for March.

There were also international celebrities here to usher in the New Year in The Best City of Them All... Notable among whom were the famed "Bricktop", the Virginia-born lass whose supper clubs in Paris and Rome were THE "In" Spots for Royalty and the International set for several decades and who is now happily retired to a fabulous Hollywood hilltop home where world celebs make their way to revel in the charm and ebullience of this really fabulous cosmopolite who has earned the reputation as one of the world's greatest hostess... "Bricktop" made the jaunt to our town to celebrate the new year with old friends -- the Louis Armstrongs, the Ed Sullivans, and our Dr. West and his Dottie... She was a guest at the latter's traditional New Year's Eve Party, but missed seeing her Buddy, the Doc, who had not yet returned from his Caribbean vacation... However, the old friends will be reunited this week-end when the Wests go to Los Angeles where they will attend one of "Bricktop's" famed parties, Saturday night.

Also here over the New Year holiday, was Dottie West's long-time friend, Mrs. Lillian "Doll" Grant from San Diego. "Doll", who is always a house guest of the Wests on her "too seldom" visits here, had just returned from a six months trip to Europe. "Doll" makes the European scene, annually.
