FILLY FLORA

Class Of The Field

Puddin ain't never bet his last bread on no filly in a race, but, baby, Puddin been clockin' one filly for a long time, and he goin' to pull your coat on a filly that will out race the whole pack every time she runs for the underdog. The filly is Flora Dungan. Whenever Civil Rights is at stake, she is the best bet to win. She ain't lost a race even when the race was fixed, like it was her last time out.

Baby, Bro ain't never had a horse to carry his colors better than Flora when she goes to the post at the Carson City Race Track. Even though they gang up on this filly and try to box her in, she slips through the pack and wins the Roses for Bro every time the stakes are high.

When a filly runs her best race every time she carries Bro's colors, she has got to get Bro's backin' whenever she goes to the post.

Baby, we ain't never goin' to let her down, cause she ain't never goin' to let us down, no matter what the odds are agin her. She runs her best race for us even when her own stable mates try to hold her back in the pack. In her last performance at the Carson City Race Track, there were two of her stable mates that helped her out of the box the rest of the horses tried to put her in. Those two horses have got to get support from us in their future races.

Norm Hilbrecht and Mel Close were the two horses who kept our filly out of the fix the rest were tryin' to put on her. Put them two horses on your "best bet" list when you go to the bettin' booth next election time.

Puddin been real bugged by the performance of one Soul Horse, who didn't do nothin' to help our filly out of the trap they had her in. It looks to Puddin like the Soul Horse, who was the horse who should have been doin' more than all the rest to help Flora, was helpin' the others to box the fast-runnin' filly to make her an also-ran. Baby, we got to get some kind of an explanation from Soul Horse Woodrow Wilson, as to why he deserted our champion filly and took sides with the opposition.

"Guts" Fair Housing Law

PARK FOREST, Ill. - (NPI)--One of the strongest fair-housing ordinances in the state has been unanimously approved by the village trustees of this south Chicago suburb.

The ordinance prohibits discrimination by owners and brokers, and also keeps lenders and financial institutions from discriminating against home seekers.

NEGRO CAUCUS FRIDAY LOCAL AWAITS ORDERS

Clark County Negro Democrats will hold a strategy meeting, Friday, March 1, in Doolittle Center's Multi-Purpose Room at 8 p.m. Members of the new Clark County Central Committee and delegates to the State Convention in Reno (March 15-16) are urging interested citizens to attend so that Negro representatives on the Central Committee and delegates to the Convention can hear their views, thereby enabling them to provide the local Negro populace true representation.

The first meeting of the new County Central Committee takes place Thursday, March 7, and it is felt that a Negro caucus is indicated before that meeting is held. All in all, Friday's meeting is very important to the entire community and everyone should make a special effort to be present if at all possible. Those who just can't make it, should strive to see that there are representatives from their voting precinct, their immediate neighborhood, and their families at Doolittle Center, Friday night.

Our delegates to the State Convention are James Chaney, Henry Turner, Aaron Williams, Earlene Turner, and Rod McSwain from North Las Vegas. Laymon Green is the representative from Henderson.

Others are the Rev. Prentiss Walker, Marjorie Elliott, Robert (Moon) Mullen, Dorothy Collins, Virgie Fitzgerald, Primas White, the Rev. John L. Simmons, George Osley, Dorothy King, Gwen Weekes Rahner, Elsie Sellers, Nathaniel Collins, and Billie V. Larsen.

Also Dr. Chas. I. West, Thelma Ray, Ike Rome, Charles Kellar, James McMillan, Sarah E. Hughes, Amos Knighten, James L. White, Joe Neal, Lula Vera White, Thelma Toms, Earle W. White, Jr., and Alice Key.

Bullets Are Color Blind Vietnam Vet Tells 'Em

JACKSONVILLE, N.C. - (NPI)--The bullets in Vietnam know no color, but the folks back home do. Or, at least, they did, until Staff Sergeant W. C. Williams, just back from the war-torn country, complained about the designation "colored" on his local property tax record. His protest worked. Onslow County commissioners explained that they had recently decided to remove all racial identification from tax records, anyway.

Special Program At Kit Carson - See Page 3 Educational, Cultural, Entertaining

Pvt. West Richard, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. West Richard, Sr. of 301 Lance St., North Las Vegas, is near completion of his basic training at Fort Ord, California. In a letter received by his parents, this week, Pvt. Richard said that it was very probable that he would not be home before his outfit ships out for a duty station in Germany. The 20-year-old Las Vegas is assigned to "A" Co., 4th Battalion BCT, 1st Brigade of the U.S. Army.

A native of Las Vegas, Private Richard received all his education in the Clark County School District save his final year of high school. When the family moved to Richmond, California where his father could undergo special treatment for his eyes, young West attended Richmond High School from which he was graduated in 1964.

The Richards have two daughters and another son. Private West Richard is their youngest child.
