

GIRL SCOUT TROOPS HOLD JOINT PROGRAM

Girl Scout Troop #83 at Matt Kelly Elementary School played host to Girl Scout Troop #140 from the Ruby Thomas Elementary School, Tuesday, Feb. 20, for a joint "Thinking Day" Program, an annual event observed by Girl Scout troops nationally as well as by the Scouts' international affiliates.

And, of course, there were games as evidenced in photo left, where girls are pictured seriously at play in an "Autograph" Scavenger Hunt. Kneeling in foreground, Wanda Ewell of Matt Kelly obliges Ruby Thomas' Candy Mason with the former's autograph while Carolyn Wallace (center stage) stands immersed in deep thought as she checks list to see whose autograph to seek... Trio left of flag are petite Patricia Washington and Bohita Wickleffe of Troop #83 and Erin Breen of Troop #140 as they check their next individual moves.

In lower photo Mrs. Nancy Snowden, co-leader of Troop #83, serves up cool, refreshing punch to thirsty Girl Scouts... Carrie Williams and Martha Stewart (slightly in rear), Terry Drahulich, and Joni Mauceri head the line.
