

Real Heart In Women's Club Post-Valentine Party

Members of the Progressive Women's Club are pictured with two of the officers of their counterpart organization, The Progressive Men's Club, at the post Valentine Party sponsored by the Women's group Feb. 24 at Marble Manor proceeds of which were donated to the Jackson family who were burned out of their home in the tragic fire that took the lives of two of their children. The Progressive Men's Club added a $28 donation to the Women's contribution.

Pictured from left (seated) are Mrs. Gea Turner, Treasurer; Mrs. Lelia Owens, Secretary; Mrs. Debra Johnson, President, and Mr. Alexander Johnson, President of the men's organization... Standing, from left, are Mrs. Fannie Mae Boxx, Mrs. Lue Tisher Woods, Mrs. Everlean Terry, George Turner, Secretary of the Progressive Men's Club; Mrs. Louise Roberts, Mrs. Josephine Neal, and Mrs. Christine Gun.

Members of the women's club not present were Mesdames Lubertha Rose, Freddie Wilform, Willie B. Williams, Barbra Washington, and Henry Williams.

Jo Mackey Council Meeting Monday

The Jo Mackey Neighborhood Council will hold a meeting, Monday, March 11, 6:30 p.m. at the office of the Aloha Trailer Park, 500 West Miller Road. Council President Thomas Clay urges all members to be present for discussion participation in the various projects with which the Council is involved. Any resident of the Jo Mackey School Zone is eligible for membership in the Jo Mackey Neighborhood Council as are all residents of other elementary school zones eligible for membership in the Council which represents the individual school zones. The public is also welcome to attend Council meetings.

The Jo Mackey Council President has expressed great appreciation to the membership for the enthusiastic turn out of the last Council meeting when educator Theron Goynes addressed the group on the detention facility for children from ages 8 to 18 at Elko and its present program.

Council members also welcomed the addition to the Jo Mackey Neighborhood Council staff of Melvin Johnson, Kathie James, and Mrs. Parker who found the give-and-take discussion at the Council meeting informative and exhilarating.

Members who have reports on projects to which they have been assigned are particularly urged to be present at the March 11 meeting to make reports on the projects.

Mrs. Sarah Ray, Jo Mackey Council Service Worker, is deeply involved with the NLV Model City Proposal, and along with representatives of other area organizations, will participate in a survey for the Model City Proposal. She is also actively engaged in organizing her community for more involvement in affairs of major interest to the community such as the survey presently being studied for the Clark County School District.

On the Service Worker's busy agenda, is a weekly project dear to her heart -- the transportation of children with brain damage to the Easter Seal Center every Wednesday for therapy in which she also gives assistance. Information on Jo Mackey Council Activities may be obtained from Mrs. Ray by calling 649-2616.
