

We've Been WONDERING

WHY the Reverend Donald Clark doesn't take time out to check! American democracy, despite its many triumphs, has not extended civil rights to all people, especially not to Negroes. From the time he is born until he dies, a Negro suffers handicaps no other American has to face--handicaps imposed on him by other Americans. The good Reverend (of all people), unwittingly or by design, has joined forces with those whose expressed aim is to DIVIDE, CONQUER, AND DESTROY!

WHY that certain "Big Man" yelps like the dog he is whenever someone rocks his boat with its rotten bottom? Mr. Big should know that when one sows the seeds of vengeance, he reaps the bitter fruits of violence.

WHY those dames who are hired to inspect the hotel rooms for cleanliness, don't do that job first instead of rushing to empty rooms to 'clean-out' the maids' totes left by departing guests as an expression of satisfaction with services rendered by conscientious maids? Those toke snatchers have very short memories. They don't seem to remember when they, too, were 'only' maids.

? ? ? ? ?

WHY Art Grant, after having run the gauntlet of being tagged incompetent, anti-white, uncooperative, etc., and having suffered (according to his outcries) the ordeal of being embarrassed, harassed, terminated, and blackballed, didn't relate his own experience to that of another who is presently fighting efforts to hound him from his job. People often are not what they seem to be, but it seems to Poor Henry that it takes a lot of time for a lot of people to see the light. The game is always lost by those who try to run with the hare and hunt with the hounds--even by the most agile and "tricky" player.

WHY the sequences of 7-11-12-20-21-22-29-30, and 36-37-43-47-51-58-60-68, are supposed to be lucky for persons born in August, September, and October.

WHY that certain preacher doesn't do some real Soul-Searching from time to time like a true Man-of-the-Cloth should to enable him to separate the positive from the negative, and "come on in" as an example of the true definition of REVEREND--like: "being worthy of REVERENCE and deep respect". Nuf-Ced.

WHY those beauticians don't wise up some of their older clients about 'snatch to match'? It could be a brand new source of income for them, and it might make life a little more exciting for their clientele.

? ? ? ? ?

WHY Larry Powell, who by personality and training is well qualified for the excellent guidance he has given more than a few with social adjustment problems and who also has contributed a great deal to worthwhile community policies and programs, allowed his image and reputation to be damaged by not demanding that community troublemakers rise to his level instead of him stooping to theirs? Ol podner, are you losing sight of the fact that but for "GOD'S" sake the other fellow's plight could be yours.

WHY that broad with three guys, who range in age from pigmeat to hogmeat, don't level with the poor cat "in between" that she ain't thinking about giving up her tender young thing, nor her sugar daddy either? Piggy thrills her and Daddy pays the freight. That poor cat in the middle ain't got no win, no kind of way--unless he finds a new scene.

Business & Agencies Reps Tour Job Corps Camp

Staff members of Opportunity Center and invited guests prepare to board chartered bus for a trip to Kingman, Arizona where the group toured the Job Corps Conservation Center located there. The trip was arranged to give representatives of local business firms and related programs to Opportunity Center a first hand look at one of many Job Corps camps throughout the nation where enrollees are taught job skills and such basic educational requirements as reading, writing and arithmetic.

Pictured with Opportunity staff members Charles W. Spann, Ed Gound, and trainee Almedia Reece are Frank Plumbo and Louise Clark from State Employment Security Department; Rudean Gatson, Warren Hatchet, Annie Lanier, Jim Gantt, Gloria Rome, and Etta Jackson from the Man-Power Development Center; Joanne Bullock, Nevada Equal Rights Commission secretary; Donald Dillman of Security General Service; A. D. McKenna and Cliff Lyman representing the Carpenters Apprentice Union and Operating Engineers Program, respectively. Equal Opportunity Employers representatives included W. W. Burns, Holmes & Narver, Inc., Howard Palmer, Nevada Power Company; Jack Nibloch, Reynolds Electrical & Engineering; John C. Cooney, Fenix & Scisson, Inc.; Karl C. Bulhf, EG&G; D. E. Dixon, Titanium Metals Corp.; John Ledbetter and Bill Bankey, Atomic Energy Commission; Blaine Bronx, Pan American World Airways, Inc.; George Weisser, Space Nuclear Propulsion Office; Kent Christensen, Westinghouse Astronuclear Lab.

war-on-poverty programs, don't visit with the heads, talk to the employees, and the clients and get with the programs so he can get first-hand knowledge? W. W. would then have solid grounds upon which to base his opinions and decisions, and wouldn't have to embarrass himself anymore. (Editor's note -- Someone might point out to the freshman Assemblyman that his are idle threats to bring the Legislature "into the act" -- State Legislators don't have a darned thing to do with the poverty program.--a.k.)

Detroit Mayor Deplores "Irresponsible Rumors"

DETROIT - (NPI)--Mayor Jerome P. Cavanaugh has pleaded with Detroiters to ignore "wildly irresponsible rumors" of more trouble coming up next summer. These rumors, he said, have caused both whites and Negroes to arm themselves in unprecedented numbers. "This arms race must be stopped," he said on television, in a city where newspapers have been shut down by a teamsters strike. "Without newspapers, rumors of black power disturbances have been spread by word of mouth until they have taken on the aspect of truth and a basis of action," said Mayor Cavanaugh.
