

Actors At Gala Premiere

NEW DATE -- Don Stroud (left) and Ena Hartman, both under contract to Universal Studios, are joined by Raymond St. Jacques at recent Hollywood premiere of Universal's "Madigan," in which Stroud and St. Jacques both have key roles. Miss Hartman, once linked with actor Maxmillian Schell, is now the frequent date of Stroud.

Film Story Of Racial Bigotry In The South

Announcement of the start of film production on "Night Hunt" was made by producer Charles Martin at a press party held on the night club set of the picture Wednesday evening March 20 at Goldwyn Studios.

Mr. Martin, who wrote the screenplay and will direct the motion picture introduced the stars to the press. They are Dana Wynter, Raymond St. Jacques, Kevin McCarthy, and Barbara McNair. Also in featured parts are Ann Prentiss, Susan Seaforth, Royal Dano, John Russell, James Craig and Steve Sandor.

"The film will employ some 350 actors and film technicians at a time when jobs in the industry are at a low point," Martin said.

The colorful night club set is one of 25 of the film's interior backgrounds. All location work will also be done in Hollywood.

The Kellie Greene Trio with Jimmy Crutcher on bass and Al Garribaldi on drums entertained at the press party, numbering 150 people.

Actual production on "Night Hunt" began Friday, March 22, with a 6 week shooting schedule. "Night Hunt" is a story of racial bigotry in the South.
