AN EXPERT OVERSEES -- Scout procedure is carefully screened with military precision as Col. Sherman observes and approves as best expert of them all (a boy's Mom--even a Cub Scout) in this moving scene when Mrs. Jackson does the honors, herself, as she pins the Bobcat award on her young son, Patrick Jackson.
