serve the people any time they need him -- and he is ready to answer the call.

This also raises the question of the next election, and how many sessions we will send legislators to Carson City who are not in favor of our request for a special session on civil rights. We believe that Negroes have a responsibility to call upon their legislators and discuss the urgency of dealing with these problems now. We believe Negroes have a responsibility to register and to vote in behalf of progress in civil rights matters.

We do not have years and years to think about the civil rights problems which exist right now in the state. We believe they must have immediate attention from a special session now. We would appreciate all the support from southern Nevada that we can get.

Very Sincerely,

Eddie Scott, President
Reno-Sparks Branch, NAACP

Doolittle MayDay Program

Doolittle Recreation Center will sponsor a May Day program of activities May 11, 1968 beginning at 12 Noon that should bring a flood of memories to mothers of youngsters, for whom the activities are designed, of the days of yore when the celebration of "May Day" was a real American festivity and everyone secretly wanted to be "The Queen Of May".

All elementary schools are encouraged to participate in the May 11 activities which include the "Wrapping of the May Pole", Relays and High Jump athletic competition and, of course, the highlight of any May Day festival, the crowning of the "Queen of May". Climaxing the myriad 'fun festivities' will be an evening soft ball game.

Elementary students wishing to participate in the schedule of activities are urged to register at Doolittle Center between the hours of 8 a.m. and 10 p.m., Monday through Saturday. Elementary schools wishing to enter a "May Queen" are asked to call the Doolittle Center--385-1221. Ext. 364--for particulars.

Genovese Case To Be Fictionalized On TV 10

NET Playhouse dramatizes the issue of the failure of responsibility in contemporary society in "The 39th Witness" to be shown on Channel 10 April 26 at 8 o'clock.

A fictionalized account of the Genovese case, the play asks the viewer in the position of the 39th witness: "What would YOU have done? Would you have behaved differently?"

The play was one of six original television dramas chosen for production by NET Pittsburgh affiliate WQED in a contest for new television scripts underwritten by the Aluminum Company of America two years ago. The drama was filmed entirely on location in Pittsburgh with camera crews working in the middle of the night, carrying out their assignments in small crowded rooms, parking lots and city intersections.

Playhouse Opens May 11

McDonald's Restaurants unique new entertainment facility for young audiences, the McDonald's Playhouse, announced its first production "The Legend of Buffalo Bill" to be held at the Teenbeat Building, 4416 Paradise Road.

The new playhouse, Las Vegas' first full-length young people's theater will present full length historical dramas, musical comedies and childrens' fantasies.

Performance schedule will be two performances each Saturday one at 11:00 a.m. and one at 1:00 p.m. starting May 11. Advance tickets, reservations and group rate information is available by calling Hephallump Enterprises at 384-8225. Hephallump Enterprises is the corporate name of the new childrens plays production company headed by former NSU student and currently one of the featured stars of "Tom Jones" at the Desert Inn, Brodie Graves.

Aurand Harris' play, "Buffalo Bill" said Graves is for "young audiences" not necessarily children. It covers the early years of the frontiersman, the start of the Pony Express, and his first meeting with Wild Bill Hickok and the infamous Yellow Hand.

Move For Watts Name Change To "Kingstown"

LOS ANGELES - (NPI)--Watts may be re-named "Kingstown"--in memory of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.--if Ben Peery, president, Watts Community Symphony orchestra, has his way.

Peery said the name change might "light a new candle of hope and bolster the determination of our youth as well as dim an unfair onus on our many fine residents."

A name change was in the talking stage in Watts, but in Haarlem, the Netherlands--for which the Harlem area of New York is named--the action had already taken place, as the city council decided to name a street after Dr. King.
