

(PUDDIN, from page 1)

Bird Dogs advice. One more time, he bounded right away from his own well-laid plan.

"We got to do this thing in fair play" the Guv said, after he got the report. "We won't take the report made by my own select people. We will seek guidance from the Realtors, the Banks, the Finance and Mortgage Companies, and see what they have to recommend on the need for Fair Housing laws."

Blood, that retort by your Guv, took the rag right off the bush. He wants to play the game "fair", he says. Then he comes up with the mortal enemies of Fair and Open Housing. A Black Muslim would stand a better chance on trial for rape of a white woman in Mississippi before a jury of 12 hooded KKK.

If Paul didn't know that the groups he named to comment on Open Housing were all anti-equal Housing Opportunities, Puddin would like for him to answer one question. "How in hell did you get out of law school and be so ignorant?" Then Puddin would like to ask the Nevada Voters two questions. "Did you know how he felt when you voted for him?" "If you didn't vote for him because you thought he would keep Bro from risin' too fast, what the hell did you pull his lever for when you elected him to be your leader?"

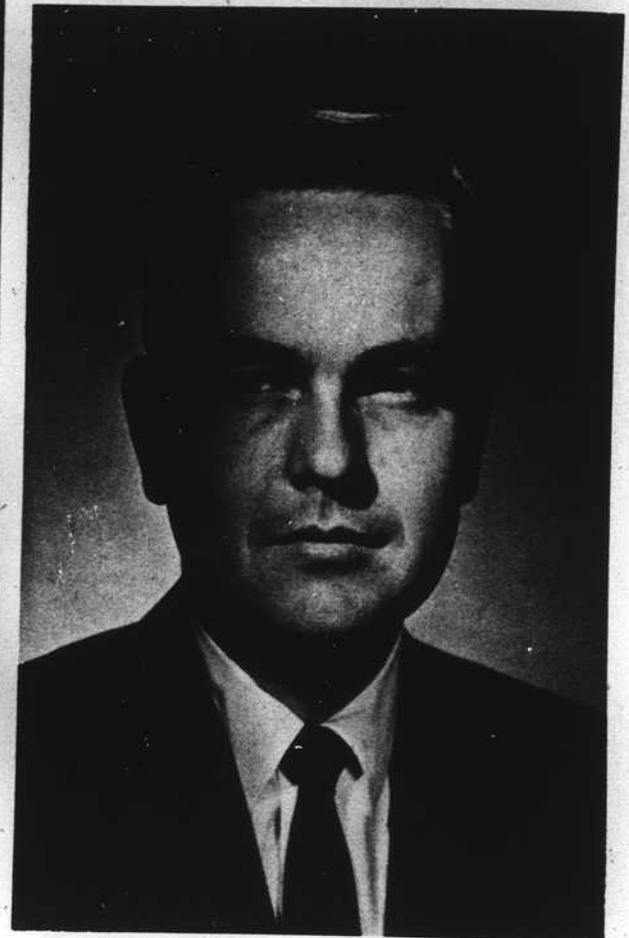

How in hell can anybody lead when they don't know where they are going, or where they stand? One day the Basque is for Rockefeller, and then he bounds over to Trickey Dick, but all the time he is as close to Ron Reagan as one barrel is to the other in a double barreled shotgun.

Baby, wait and see what the real estate and mortgage people have to say about Equal Housing Opportunity and then you will see what kind of a leader you got. Puddin took and told you, already. He ain't nothin'.

FORMER POLITICOS ON CAMPAIGN TRAIL AGAIN

FORMER LAS VEGAS JUSTICE OF THE PEACE JAMES BRENNAN'S announcement that he will be a candidate for the Clark County Commission seat representing the City of Las Vegas ended months of speculation on whether the 37-year-old Brennan would re-enter politics. He completed his two-year term as Justice of the Peace in 1966 and did not seek reelection... The Las Vegas attorney said he would wage an "active and intensive campaign" for the post now held by Commissioner Bob Baskin. Brennan overcame a field of 10 opponents to be elected Justice of the Peace in 1964 by the largest vote ever cast for a Justice of the Peace candidate in Nevada.

LAS VEGAS ATTORNEY JAMES H. BILBRAY has announced his candidacy for a four-year term as Regent of the University of Nevada, running in District No. Two.... Bilbray is formerly a Deputy District Attorney who is currently serving as Chief Counsel for the Clark County Juvenile Court Services.

MARRIAGE FOR DAUGHTERS OF TWO SOLONS

NEWTON, Mass. - (NPI)--Some may call it an "interracial marriage," but for Sen. Edward Brooke's daughter, Remi, and her white fiancée, all that's coming up is an "old-fashioned wedding," marked by an age problem, rather than racial overtones.

Miss Brooke's future husband, Donald R. Hasler, 18, isn't concerned about the racial issue at all. Neither is the 19-year-old bride-to-be, whose father is black and whose mother is white. The couple apparently is simply too young to care about "racial differences."

The one obstacle in their way is, not race, but the state law requiring young men between 18 and 21 to get parental consent before marrying. Had Hasler been a year younger, he would not have been allowed to marry--even with parental permission.

Apparently, this roadblock has been passed, as the couple plans to marry June 22 at the Massachusetts Senator's summer home on Martha's Vineyard.

Both Hasler and Miss Brooke are Roman Catholics.

The prospective bridegroom is a freshman engineering student at Monmouth College, West Long Branch, N.J.

He plans to transfer to Northeastern University, Boston, which Miss Brooke now attends.

PHILADELPHIA - (NPI)--Wedding bells are scheduled to ring out sometime in August for the daughter of Chief Judge and Mrs. William H. Hastie, of the Third U.S. Court of Appeals.

The Hasties last week announced the engagement of their daughter, Karen Roberta, to Wesley Samuel Williams, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Williams of Washington, D.C.

A 1966 graduate of Bates College, with a master's degree in International Relations from Tufts University's Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, Miss Hastie is presently with the international public affairs department of Mobil Oil Corporation, New York.

Her fiancée, a product of Harvard College, where he was graduated magna cum laude, received a degree from the Harvard Law School, and is currently a graduate fellow at Columbia Law School.

He presently serves as executive assistant to the Rev. Walter F. Fauntroy, vice-chairman, District of Columbia Council, and director, Washington Bureau, Southern Christian Leadership Conference. His father was a former president of the D.C. Board of Education.

Judge Hastie, a former dean of Howard University School of Law, also served as governor of the Virgin Islands.
