

That Great Britton Dinner Is Saturday

Mrs. Jearlena Britton, Las Vegas' contestant in the America's Singers Association's National Queen Contest reminds all her supporters that Saturday, June 1, 1968 is the day of the "Big Fat Turkey - Barbecue - Fried Chicken Dinner" which will be served from 4 p.m. at her home, 1960 'D' Street... The $2 donation will provide you a marvelous home-cooked meal and an opportunity to help Mrs. Britton win the crown.

Daniel In Lion's Den

ANTI-GAMBLING CRUSADER -- Rev. Wm. Luke, who identifies himself as pastor of Western Ave. Church of God in Christ in Los Angeles, has been conducting a one-man demonstration against gambling in and outside downtown gambling casinos since May 20... According to the Reverend, in some casinos he is permitted to walk around the tables with his sign... In others, he has been led outside by security guards.

Presented Here Sunday

THE REVELATIONS, along with the Silver Stars will appear at a "Gospel Extravaganza" Sunday, June 2, 1968, 7:30 p.m. at Zion Methodist Church on 'H' Street.... Both these Los Angeles, California groups have been widely acclaimed as inspirational gospel and spiritual singers. Donation is $1.00.

Headstart Classes Set

Headstart classes will begin June 17 and end August 2, 1968.

Schools to be utilized are: Madison, Quannah McCall, C.T. Sewell, Highland, Jo Mackey, Kit Carson, Matt Kelly, Mountain View, Sunrise Acres, and C.V.T. Gilbert. Each school will include from one to four Headstart classes, each with 15 pre-schoolers with a teacher, teacher aide, Neighborhood Youth Corps worker, and a parent volunteer.

The Headstart program will include learning skill activities, motor-building, social skill building, nutrition, manipulative experiences, and field trips. According to Dr. Joseph Caliguri, Project Director, the Headstart programs have provided medical, social, physical, and academic benefits for disadvantaged pre-schoolers.
