

GALA FAREWELL PARTY

FRIENDS OF DARLENE AVERY gathered at the home of Miss Evelyn E. Neal, 1673 N. 'E' Street, Tuesday evening (July 30) to bid a fond farewell to the lovely young lass who is returning to her home in Raleigh, N.C. Darlene, a member of the "Sweet Inspiration" dancing group, is a sister of Mrs. Virginia Hodges of 1654 N. 'E' Street with whom she has made her home here for the past year and a half.

TIPS FOR VETERANS

The Veterans Administration, under certain conditions, can make a limited number of direct Government home or farm home loans to eligible veterans.

World War II vocational rehabilitation training has expired for all but certain seriously disabled veterans who could have up to 1975 to complete training, says the Veterans Administration.

FETCHIT SEEKS EQUAL TIME

CHICAGO - (NPI)-- A protest has been lodged against the CBS-network program "Black America," by Lincoln Theodore Monroe Andrew Perry better known in entertainment circles as Stepin Fetchit.

The former movie comedian wants "equal time" to explain his role in the movies, contending that the episode in which clips from his movie roles were shown "distorted the records."

MOVE OVER, BROTHER

MIAMI - (NPI) -- Sidney Poitier, the present reigning Black star of film, may find himself being nudged over a bit, and by none other than his older brother--Cyril Morton Poitier, 52.

Cyril recently completed his first film venture "Old Enough and Big Enough" an action motorcycle saga in which he portrays a gas station attendant who protects a young girl from a band of cyclists. Though not of Oscar-winning material, his venture has outdrawn Sidney's films in cities where it has been shown.
