WELCOME TO LAS VEGAS:

- It is with great joy and pride that I welcome to Las Vegas my beloved Goddaughter, Miss Yvonne Maria St. John, formerly of Panama City, and presently residing in Brooklyn, New York with her devoted parents Mr. and Mrs. Vivian St. John. Yvonne arrived last Saturday night via TWA to spend a short vacation with me, her Godmother. She is a devout Catholic whose greatest ambition was to become a Nun but has changed her mind because of close family ties. She is presently employed by the Chase Manhattan Bank (Main Branch) on Wall Street, and also enjoys part-time modeling.

CONGRATULATIONS:

- to Miss Althea Hall and Miss Linda McIntosh who will participate in a Summer Travel Studies International program. They, along with 30 other high school and university students and four chaperones, will make their departure on July 18 and return on August 30th. They will stay at a variety of European Universities and will visit London, Rotterdam in Holland, Paris, Mulhouse in France, and Rome. Teachers chaperoning the group are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kovac, Mrs. Vonne Chowning, and Mr. Joseph Glick. This is both an educational and pleasure trip for which the students will earn high school and college credits.

- to the members of "Le Femme Douze" organization who sponsored a most successful "Career Day Conference" bearing the theme: "Planning for Tomorrow". This enriching and enlightening conference was held last Saturday 9 a.m. at Doolittle Recreation Center.

A welcome address was given by Mrs. Joanne Pughsley, president of "Le Femme Douze", Introductory Remarks, Mrs. Gwen Bennett, a timely and informative discourse on "Career Preparations" by Miss Margaret Crawford, and Introduction of Career Speakers by Mrs. Lajuana Bailey and Mrs. Ruth Hicks. Resource speakers from various walks of life who counseled the aspiring Debs were: Mr. Ed Goodin-Business Administration, UNLV; Mrs. Elinor Armstrong-Vocational Tech School, Mr. Ron Ruskins, Automation Academy-Data Processing, Mrs. Jennis Crawford, Counselor; Mrs. Karin Kovacs-Psychologists, Cashman High, Mrs. Mabel Hoggard-Coordinator Westside Council, Mrs. Veal, Southern Nevada School of Nursing.

A HAPPY REUNION WITH DADDY:

- to Byron, Kelvin, and Renell Wynn, children of Mrs. Juanita Wynn, who will be joining their father William Earl Wynn, Executive Secretary-Equal Rights Commission of Rhode Island, New York for a long summer vacation. We understood that the Wynn's will be right at home since New York is close by. Their father is anxiously awaiting their arrival at Kennedy Airport in New York City. Have fun kids and Congratulations to a Wonderful Daddy!

This tall statuesque damsel has enough credentials to get her started for the moon. She is attractive, appealing, charming and personable.

She lives in New York; she is employed by Chase Manhattan Bank; she is enrolled with the American Institute of Banking; she is a free-lance model. And if that isn't enough -- she is the Goddaughter of our Grace McGlothen, and she's paying a hurried visit to Las Vegas.

Her name is Yvonne St. John.

This pretty lady does a pretty good job of cake cutting. She is Maude Gadsen carving a "Success Cake" in preparation for the June 8th - 11th N.Y. State Beauty Trade Show to be held at Statler-Hilton. We suppose she, too, is a beautician and cuts a pretty fancy figure with new steps and new hair and wig fashions.
