

FROM NAVY TO WESTERN

Robert Anderson, ex-Navy pilot, joined the growing list of Negro pilots flying for U.S. commercial airlines. The UCLA grad is now a flight officer, shown here at work in a Boeing 707, for Western's L. A.-Hawaii run.

Summer Program Starts At Matt Kelly

Registration for Summer Program classes at Matt Kelly Community School will be accepted until June 13th, announced Kermit R. Booker, Jr., school coordinator, this week.

You may register any day between 9 AM and 9 PM simply by calling 649-3311 or 649-3312. All entries are requested to follow-up their registration before June 13th, and where required, to pay the $1.00 per class fee.

Classes are expected to run 7-weeks and are open for pre-school children to adults, depending on the class.

THE STRIP SWINGS

The Strip should be jumping this week with soulful performances by Little Richard, Solomon Burke and Bill Medley.

Little Richard, who quit swinging some-time ago to start singing for the Lord, is back swinging again. He's at the Aladdin.

Burke has long been a favorite in the east having headlined many times at Frank Shiffman's famous Apollo Theatre.

Medley has been here before. Made his debut last year and is headlining what they call the "Soul Show." For two weeks they will be in the Celebrity Theatre.
