

TWA Names Adviser

New York -- The appointment of Cyndi James to the newly created position of National Advisor - Negro Women's Travel for Trans World Airlines was announced today by James O. Plinton, Senior Director-Special Market Affairs.

Miss James will assist Negro women and women's organizations in the development of travel and convention activities and community relations programs throughout the United States and overseas.

Miss James was born in Minneapolis. She attended Augsburg College. Following a year as an orchestral vocalist she joined TWA in April, 1968 as a hostess on flights operating within the United States and out of New York's Kennedy Airport.

Early this year Miss James volunteered on her days off to teach English and discuss careers as a flight hostess with young women in Harlem under the Urban League's street academy program. This project helps young men and women obtain high school diplomas and prepare for college.

This summer Miss James coordinated a six-week course in airline-hostess tips on beauty, poise and charm for young women in Brooklyn under the sponsorship of TWA and the Bushwick Community Corporation of Brooklyn.

The Master Speaks To A Pro

The awesome look on Emile Griffin's face tells little about Sugar Ray Robinson's advice to him on the eve of his Welterweight title fight, Friday, with Jose Napoles at the Forum in Inglewood, Calif. Both Ray and Emile have owned the welter and middleweight crowns. Robinson, in his time, was rated the best man pound-for-pound in the ring.

Watch The VOICE Changes

The Voice has been a free paper for six years. Now we are going to have to sell it - either one copy at a time or by subscriptions.

That is why, three weeks ago, there appeared on the front page of The Voice the...15¢ PER COPY, for the first time. That will be the cost of the Voice. Watch for it at your favorite newsstand.

Or to be "sure" of receiving your paper each week, investigate the certain method of having your Voice mailed direct to your door.

Certain regulations require us to use the postal system as a method of distribution. We hope you will understand and continue to read the Voice. Besides, with the new cost of production, we just cannot afford to continue giving it away.

We hope you will understand.
