

From The Pen OF Dotti Allen

KTOO is just too much with their sweet soul music and SWEET LOUIE of the Checkmates settin' in.

L.A. is not only sharing their "smog" with Vegas but also a few of their musicians and business execs. Jazzy guitarist ROY HAYES and charmin' wife RUBY were guests over the week-end. Some of we oldtimers might remember Mr. HAYES from the 1950's when he played places like the El Morocco, Town Tavern and El Cortez. ROY is presently appearing in Los Angeles at the Fanfair and the Chatterbox. He also informed Dotti he has a few recordings soon to be released.

Also week-ending in the "Fun City" were Mr. and Mrs. BOOKER RIDGEWAY. Wife DELORES head of personnel at North American Rockwell Corp., L.A. just drove down to show mama GEORGIA and daddy BILLY, the boss birthday gift from hubby. Just a brand new Dodge Charger. Accompanying the couple were FREDDIE and BARBARA WILSON, and EARNEST and LOUISE WEAKS, also of Los Angeles. They were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. DENNIE. Everyone got together and did their thing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. MELVIN HARRIS.

Seems as tho it's still vacation time. Las Vegas Voice's DOROTHY JOHNSON just returned from an excitin' week in KANSAS CITY, Mo., where she visited her mother Mrs. ESTELLA WALDRON, daughter BARBARA PEARL, and an aunt, MABELLE BELL. Mrs. JOHNSON returned just in time to attend the Senior Citizens Sponsor's Party and left Monday en route to Tucson to attend the Workshop at the University of Arizona.

Speakin' of Senior Citizens, BOY!! they really do their thing. DOTTI attended the Sponsors Party and it was "too much."

A general rundown of the program...Opening remarks by JOSEPH SIVIELIA, entertainment included a number of selections by pianist VIC ARTESE, formerly with the Artist and Models show on the Strip; and the Swinging Stoppers, led by BEA EVERAGE. The group consisting of about 10 ladies, all Senior Citizens. The talents and instruments of these ladies would have to be seen to be appreciated. One cowbell, a banjo, a bass (garbage can, wooden clothes pole with string), horn (clorox bottle), a tambourine, flutophone and tuned-up washboard. AUNT ROSA LEE did her thing on the dance floor.

Making the rounds Dotti observed more familiar faces. Mr. and Mrs. RAY JOHNSON, and Mrs. THELMA BROWN owner of Thelma's House of Charm, truly a charmin' young lady. Can't wait to join in on their next excitin' event.

The Cinderella Look

For holidays, parties, or visits to Grandmom's, Cinderella's A-shaped crocheted knit with puffed up sleeves ruffled round in self fabric. The velvet bow with its exaggerated streamers add just the right touch.

Anytime, Anyplace - Just Go

Raining, snowing, or what have you. This Neo-Geo Houndstooth-Printed Velvet Coat, belted in Licorice patent by Count Romi.

Watch The VOICE Changes

The Voice has been a free paper for six years. Now we are going to have to sell it - either one copy at a time or by subscriptions.

That is why, three weeks ago, there appeared on the front page of The Voice the...15¢ PER COPY, for the first time. That will be the cost of the Voice. Watch for it at your favorite newsstand.

Or to be "sure" of receiving your paper each week, investigate the certain method of having your Voice mailed direct to your door.

Certain regulations require us to use the postal system as a method of distribution. We hope you will understand and continue to read the Voice. Besides, with the new cost of production, we just cannot afford to continue giving it away.

We hope you will understand.
