

SMITH SOUL GIRLS

With the blessings of their principal, Mark Webster, special permission was given these girls from J. D. Smith School to form a drill team. Led by Vera Sampson, the girls will make their initial appearance very soon and will be seen in Las Vegas and North Las Vegas parades. They are both exciting and unique.

NAMED MARKET HEAD

CHARLES E. LEWIS

Winston-Salem -- The R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company has named Charles E. (Chuck) Lewis, national manager of special markets.

In his newly created position, Lewis will advise RJR's management on techniques to improve tobacco product sales in special markets, and assist the marketing department in solving broader problems related to sales in those areas. One of Lewis' primary responsibilities will be to analyze and evaluate on-the-scene sales problems, and advise all levels of management of workable solutions to those problems.

He will also participate in conferences and expositions, and assist in the sales department's recruiting program, and provide advice and assistance to management in the career development of sales representatives.
