BARBARA THOMAS is the featured vocalist with her renditions, and "socks it to 'em" with The Entertainers. She is making her first appearance in Vegas.

The March of Dimes filmstrip "More Than Love," produced especially for teenagers, explains the role of preconceptional and prenatal care in preventing birth defects.

Thousands of young people in the Teen Action Program (TAP) of the March of Dimes across the country serve in the fight to prevent birth defects.

Stardust means extra excitement.
