THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Hear the call, Mission Workers from each corner of the land. Join together, failing never. Side by side and hand in hand, give talents, time and service. Stewardship in every phase. Kingdom building, mission filling.

Till all Nations sing God's praise. Find the needy, give them freely, in our land and o'er the seas. Spread the Gospel, tell the good news. Bringing sinners to their knees. Jesus calls, Mission Workers. Can't you hear this Savior friend? Will you answer, "Yes, my Master, I will labor 'till the end."

VA QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Q -- I served in World War II, and have a 20-year endowment plan that will mature next year. Will I have to take face value, or can I convert it to another type of insurance?

A -- You may exchange it for a policy of lesser cash value if you prove to be in good health. This must be done before the policy matures.

* * * * *

Q -- I now receive a pension for non-service disabilities from the VA under the old (or protected) pension law. When I die, will my wife also be paid under the old law?

A -- No. The surviving widow must apply for pension at the time of your death under the pension law in effect at that time.

Q -- If I take a paid-up policy after changing from my World War II 20-year endowment plan, will my dividends discontinue?

A -- No. However, the dividends may be less than on your present policy.

First Presbyterian Chancel Choir To Perform Faure Requiem

The First Presbyterian Chancel Choir, under the direction of Anthony Thomas, will perform Gabriel Faure Requiem, Op. 48.
